

Louis C. Camilleri

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

Louis C. Camilleri became Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Philip Morris International on 28 March 2008, following the spin-off of Philip Morris International from Altria Group, Inc.

Prior to this, he had been Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Altria, since 2002. He had previously served as Altria's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer since November 1996.

Louis joined Philip Morris International in 1978 as a Business Development Analyst with Philip Morris Europe, and held various line and staff positions focusing on the establishment and growth of the Eastern Europe, Middle East & Africa (EEMA) Region of Philip Morris International. In 1982, he was appointed Director, Business Development & Planning, and in 1986, he assumed responsibility for all staff functions as Vice President, EEMA Region.

In 1990, Louis was appointed Vice President, Central & Eastern Europe, Philip Morris International, and led the significant expansion of Philip Morris International's business in that geographic area. In 1993, Louis transferred to Philip Morris International's European Union Region, where he served as Senior Vice President, with responsibility for all staff functions.

Louis was named the Company's Vice President, Corporate Business Strategy, in February 1995 and in August 1995, he became Senior Vice President, Corporate Planning. In December 1995, he was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of Kraft Foods International.

Prior to joining Philip Morris International, Louis was a Business Analyst with W. R. Grace & Co., in Lausanne, Switzerland.

Louis received a degree in Economics and Business Administration from Lausanne University in 1976.
