Article 5 Shares and Payment of the Share Issue Price

1. The Company's registered share capital has been divided up as follows:
 - a) 831,688 ordinary registered shares with a nominal value of CZK 1,000 each, which are not registered for public trading on a European regulated market, with a total nominal value of CZK 831,688,000; these shares are securities; and

2. The Company keeps a list of shareholders. For book-entered shares the list of shareholders is replaced by records of book-entered securities kept pursuant to a special legal regulation.
 3. Only the persons recorded in the list of shareholders are deemed to be the Company's shareholders holding shares. The Company shall record a new shareholder in the list of shareholders without undue delay after it is presented with proof that there has been a change of shareholder. It shall also be deemed that the person whose owner account contains book-entered securities is the owner of the book-entered securities. If a shareholder caused that it is not registered in the list of shareholders or that a record in the list of shareholders does not correspond to the actual state of affairs, it may not seek the invalidity of a resolution of the General Meeting due to the fact that the Company did not allow it to take part in the General Meeting or to vote at the General Meeting on the basis of this fact.
 4. The list of shareholders of the Company shall indicate the class of the share, its nominal value, the name and address or the registered office of the shareholder, the number of its bank account kept with an entity authorised to provide banking services in a country which is a valid member of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, designation of the share and changes in the recorded information. The list of shareholders shall also contain information on any separation or transfer of a separately transferable right. Upon the written request of a shareholder and at its expense, the Company shall provide the shareholder with a copy of the list of shareholders who are owners of registered shares, or the required parts of the list without undue delay after receiving the request.
 5. The Company's shares are transferable in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Business Corporations Act, Act No. 89/2012 Coll., the Civil Code, as amended (the "Civil Code"), and Act No. 191/1950 Coll., the Cheques Act, as amended (the "Cheques Act"). The transferability of the Company's shares is not restricted.
 6. The Company may issue shares as global shares (certificates) replacing the individual shares. The rights arising from a global share (certificate) cannot be divided into shares (podíly) by transfer. An owner of a global share (certificate) is entitled to replacement of the global share (certificate) for individual shares or for other global shares (certificates) based on a written request addressed to the Board of Directors. The Company is obliged within two months after the delivery of the written request, to replace the global share (certificate) for individual shares or for other global shares (certificates). A global share (certificate) shall contain, in addition to the formalities under Section 259 and Section 260 of the Business Corporations Act, the formality under Section 262 of the Business Corporations Act, in particular information about how many shares and of what class it is to replace.
 7. Under the conditions stipulated by the Business Corporations Act, the following rights may be transferred separately: the right to a share in profit, the priority right to subscribe for shares and convertible and priority bonds, the right to a share in the liquidation balance and other similar property rights specified by these Articles of Association.
 8. If a share is owned by more than one person, all these persons are co-owners of the share and, in relation to the Company, the share is administered by the administrator of the co-owned item. Mutual relationships between the co-owners of shares are governed analogously by the provisions of the Civil Code regulating co-ownership.
 9. Unless stipulated otherwise, the procedure for increasing and reducing the registered share capital shall be governed by the relevant provisions of the Business Corporations Act. When increasing the registered share capital by subscription for new shares, the conditions and manner of share payment shall be stipulated by the General Meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act and these Articles of Association.
 10. When subscribing for shares in connection with an increase in the registered share capital, the subscriber shall be obliged to pay at least 30% of their nominal value, unless a higher percentage is required in the resolution of the General Meeting on an increase of the registered share capital, and a share premium, if any, in the case of monetary contributions, and after all in-kind contributions have been made. The subscriber shall pay the remaining portion of the issue price of these shares no later than six months after the registered capital increase takes effect. Until the issue price of the shares is paid, the shareholder's rights and obligations relating to unpaid shares are represented by interim certificates issued by the Company without undue delay after the registered capital increase takes effect.

11. A subscriber who delays the payment of the issue price of the shares subscribed for by it or a determined portion of such price within the period stipulated by the General Meeting, these Articles of Association or the Business Corporations Act, must pay to the Company default interest on the amount due, which shall equal twice the amount of the default interest stipulated by another applicable legal regulation. If a subscriber is in delay with respect to making a contribution or a part of it, the Board of Directors shall call on the subscriber, by sending it a registered letter, to fulfil its obligation within 60 days of the receipt of such request. After the expiration of such period to no effect, the Board of Directors shall expel the defaulting shareholder from the Company in respect of the shares in relation to which it failed to fulfil its obligation to make a contribution, and shall invite it to submit its interim certificate (if issued) within a reasonable period set by the Board of Directors. This shall not apply if the Board of Directors takes any other measure. If no interim certificate has been issued, the unpaid shares shall pass to the Company upon expiry of the aforesaid additional period to no effect. The expelled shareholder guarantees the payment of the issue price of the shares subscribed by it. Should the expelled shareholder fail to submit the interim certificate (if issued) within the specified period, the Board of Directors shall declare the interim certificate invalid and shall inform the shareholder of this fact in writing. The Board of Directors shall notify the shareholders of its resolution in the manner prescribed by the Business Corporations Act and these Articles of Association for convening a General Meeting, and shall simultaneously publish the resolution.
12. The Company shall issue shares to a person approved by the General Meeting, provided that this person pays the issue price of the shares; otherwise the Company shall reduce the registered share capital by the nominal or accounting value of the interim certificate or unpaid shares.
13. Performance obtained by the Company from the sale of returned shares shall be used as a consideration for the performance provided by the expelled shareholder for the payment of the issue price, and the Company shall pay such performance to the expelled shareholder without undue delay. The Company shall offset its receivables due from the expelled shareholder as a result of a breach by the shareholder of its obligations against such performance. The Company may also offset any reasonable expenses that it incurs in relation to declaring the interim certificate invalid, while proving the amount of the offset receivable to the shareholder.

Article 6

Rights and Obligations of the Company's Shareholders

1. The rights and obligations of shareholders are set out by the legal regulations and by these Articles of Association.
2. A shareholder of the Company may be either a legal entity or an individual.
3. Any rightful shareholder of the Company shall be entitled to take part in the management of the Company. This right shall be exercised in principal at the General Meeting and each shareholder must respect the rules of procedure and voting at the General Meeting, provided that such rules are approved by the General Meeting.
4. A shareholder shall be entitled to take part in a General Meeting and to vote at the General Meeting. A shareholder is entitled to require and obtain from the Company explanations in respect of the Company's affairs and matters relating to parties controlled by the Company, should such explanation be necessary for the assessment of matters on the agenda of the General Meeting or for the exercise of shareholder's rights at the General Meeting. The shareholder may file the request for explanation pursuant to the preceding sentence in writing. The request must be filed after the publication of the invitation to the General Meeting and before the date on which the General Meeting is to be held. The exercise of such rights is specified in detail in Articles 8, 9 and 10 of these Articles of Association.

The number of votes in the Company totals 2,745,386 (in words: two million seven hundred and forty-five thousand three hundred and eighty-six).
6. Shareholders of the Company shall have the right to a share in the profit (dividends) approved by the General Meeting for distribution among shareholders based on the economic result, and each shareholder's share in the profit shall be determined based upon the proportion of the shareholder's share to the Company's registered share capital. The decisive date for exercising the right to a dividend is the same as the decisive date for attendance of the General Meeting which resolves on such dividend payment. The dividend shall be payable within three months of the date of the adoption of the resolution of the General Meeting on profit distribution, unless the General Meeting resolves otherwise. The dividends shall not bear interest and those of them that are not collected within three years of their due date shall be transferred to the Company's fund of uncollected dividends.
7. Shareholders are not entitled to request that their contributions be returned during the existence of the Company or upon its winding-up. After the winding-up of the Company with liquidation, shareholders shall be entitled to a share in the liquidation balance whereas such liquidation balance shall be divided among the shareholders in proportion corresponding to the paid nominal value of their shares. The right to a share in the liquidation balance shall arise upon the return of the shares to the Company at the request of the liquidator. For book-entered shares, the right to a share in the liquidation balance shall arise to a shareholder on the day on which the shares are deleted from the Company's records of book-entered securities based on the order of the liquidator.

Article 9
Convening of the General Meeting

1. The General Meeting shall be convened by the Board of Directors at least once per accounting period, usually at the Company's registered office or at such other place indicated by the Board of Directors in the invitation to the General Meeting.
2. The Board of Directors shall convene a General Meeting:
 - (a) at any time it deems necessary in view of the Company's interests or for any other good reason; or
 - (b) upon a written request of a shareholder or shareholders holding shares with a total nominal value of or such a number of shares corresponding to at least 1% of the Company's registered share capital in order to discuss the matters proposed by such shareholder(s), provided that each of the matters proposed includes the reasoning or a proposal for a resolution; or
 - (c) if it learns that the Company's total loss on the basis of any financial statements has reached an amount which if covered by the Company's available sources would result in an uncovered loss amounting to one half of the Company's registered share capital, or if this result may be expected in view of all the circumstances, and in particular if it learns that the Company has become insolvent (in Czech: v úpadku).
3. The General Meeting shall be convened by the Supervisory Board if the Company does not have any Board of Directors elected or if the Board of Directors does not fulfil its obligations on a long-term basis and if the General Meeting is not even convened by a member of the Board of Directors. The Supervisory Board may also convene the General Meeting if the Company's interests so require, in which case the Supervisory Board will propose necessary measures. If the Supervisory Board does not convene the General Meeting, it may be convened by any member of the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board is, as the body convening the General Meeting, bound in the same way as the Board of Directors by rules for the convocation of the General Meeting (Sections 405 to 411 of the Business Corporations Act).
4. The Board of Directors shall convene the General Meeting by publishing an invitation to the General Meeting on the website of the Company at least 30 days prior to the General Meeting and sending it at the same time to each shareholder holding registered shares or book-entered shares, to each such shareholder's registered office or address as recorded in the list of shareholders or in the records of book-entered securities. The invitation must remain published on the Company's website until the date of the General Meeting. A shareholder may choose to have invitations to the General Meetings delivered in electronic form to an e-mail address that it notifies to the Company no later than on 31 December of the relevant year before the respective General Meeting is to be held by means of (i) a written notice sent to the registered office of the Company or (ii) an e-mail sent by the shareholder to the Company's e-mail address philipmorris.cz@pmi.com or (iii) from 1 January 2015 through a web application accessible to the shareholders on the website of the Company <http://www.philipmorris.cz>. In such a case, the Company will only send the invitations to the following General Meetings to the shareholder electronically to the notified e-mail address. If the shareholder no longer wishes to receive the invitations to the following General Meetings only electronically to the notified e-mail address, the shareholder shall notify it to the Company in writing or electronically (in a same manner specified above in this paragraph) no later than on 31 December of the relevant year before the respective General Meeting. If the shareholder causes that the e-mail address, which it notified to the Company for the purposes of receiving the invitation for the General Meeting, does not correspond to the actual state of affairs or that such e-mail address was cancelled in the meantime and the shareholder did not notify a new e-mail address to the Company, the shareholder may not seek the invalidity of a resolution of the General Meeting due to the fact that the Company did not allow it to take part in the General Meeting or to vote at the General Meeting on the basis of this fact.

The condition of a 30-day period does not need to be observed in the following instances:

- a) convening of a substitute General Meeting;
- b) convening of a General Meeting on the basis of a request of shareholders under Article 9 (2) of these Articles of Association.

In the above cases, a period as stipulated by law shall apply.

5. The invitation to the General Meeting must include:

- a) the business name and registered office of the Company;
 - b) the place, date and time of the General Meeting;
 - c) information about whether an ordinary or a substitute General Meeting is being convened;
 - d) the agenda of the General Meeting, including any person nominated to hold the office of a member of any of the Company bodies (if any);
 - e) a decisive day for attending the General Meeting, if one has been determined, and an explanation of its significance for voting at the General Meeting;
 - f) draft resolutions of the General Meeting and their reasoning;
 - g) the essentials stipulated in Section 120a of Act No. 256/2004 Coll., on Business Activities on the Capital Market, as amended (the "Act on Business Activities on the Capital Market"); and
 - h) other essentials stipulated by law, these Article of Association or any previous resolutions of the General Meeting.
6. If no draft resolution pursuant to paragraph 5(f) of this Article is submitted, the invitation to the General Meeting shall contain the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company on each item of the agenda proposed; at the same time, the Company will publish on its website draft resolutions of the General Meeting as prepared by the shareholders without undue delay after receiving them.
 7. If the agenda of the General Meeting includes any amendments of the Articles of Association of the Company, the Company will allow each shareholder to view the draft amendments of the Articles of Association at its registered office free of charge within the time limit specified in the invitation to the General Meeting. A shareholder may request that a copy of the draft Articles of Association be sent to it at its own expense and risk. Shareholders must be informed of these rights in the invitation to the General Meeting.
 8. The explanation under Article 6 (4) above regarding matters relating to the relevant General Meeting will be provided by the Company to the shareholders directly at the General Meeting. If this is not possible due to the complexity of the explanation, the Company will provide the explanation to all shareholders within 15 days after the date of the General Meeting, even if this is no longer necessary for the consideration of actions of the General Meeting or for the exercise of shareholders' rights at the General Meeting, by publishing it on the website of the Company. The information contained in the explanation must be clear and must provide a sufficient and true view of the enquiry concerned. The explanation above may be provided in the form of a summary statement on several similar issues. It shall be deemed that shareholders have been provided with the explanation even if the information is published on the Company's website no later than on the day preceding the date of the General Meeting and is available to the shareholders for viewing at the place where the General Meeting is to take place. If the information is provided to a shareholder, any other shareholder is entitled to request this information even without adhering to the procedure pursuant to Section 357 of the Business Corporations Act.
 9. Any shareholder is entitled to file proposals and counterproposals regarding any matters included in the agenda of the General Meeting. If a shareholder intends to file a counterproposal to any matter on the agenda of the General Meeting, such shareholder will deliver it to the Company within a reasonable time limit prior to the date of the General Meeting which will be determine in an invitation to the respective General Meeting; this shall not apply in the case of proposals for certain persons to become members of the Company bodies. The provisions of Section 369 (2) of the Business Corporations Act shall apply analogously.
 10. The Board of Directors shall inform the shareholders of the relevant shareholder's counterproposal in the manner stipulated by the Business Corporations Act and these Articles of Association regarding the convocation of the General Meeting, and shall publish the counterproposal together with its opinion. This shall not apply if the information is delivered less than two days before the date of the General Meeting, or if the costs related to such information are in gross disproportion to the meaning and content of the counterproposal, or if the counterproposal contains more than 100 words. If the counterproposal contains more than 100 words, the Board of Directors shall inform the shareholders of the substance of the counterproposal and of its opinion, and shall publish the counterproposal on the website of the Company.

11. A shareholder may file its proposals in relation to the matters which are to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting also before the invitation to the General Meeting is published. The Board of Directors shall publish any proposal delivered to the Company at least seven days before the invitation to the General Meeting is published and its opinion on it along with the invitation to the General Meeting. Paragraph 10 of this Article applies analogously to any proposals delivered after this time limit.
12. The General Meeting may be cancelled or postponed until a later date. The Company shall inform the shareholders of the cancellation or postponement of the General Meeting in the manner stipulated by law and these Articles of Association regarding the convocation of the General Meeting at least one week before the originally announced date of the General Meeting; otherwise it will pay to the shareholders who appeared at the General Meeting according to the original invitation the related reasonably expended costs. If the General Meeting was convened on the basis of a request of the shareholders described in Article 9(2), the General Meeting can only be cancelled or postponed if these shareholders agree with it.
13. A substitute General Meeting shall be convened by the Board of Directors by a new invitation, which does not have to contain reasonable information about the substance of the individual matters included in the agenda of the General Meeting pursuant to paragraph 5(d) of this Article above, in the manner specified in this Article; however, the period specified therein shall be reduced to 15 days. The invitation to the substitute General Meeting shall be sent to the shareholders no later than 15 days after the date for which the original General Meeting was convened, and the substitute General Meeting shall be held within six weeks of the day of the original General Meeting. Its agenda must be unchanged. The substitute General Meeting shall be quorate regardless of the number of the shareholders present and the nominal value of their shares. Resolutions on matters that were not included in the proposed agenda of the original General Meeting may only be adopted at the substitute General Meeting if all shareholders agree with it.
14. A General Meeting that was not convened duly and on time can only be held if all shareholders of the Company agree with it. Each shareholder must provide their consent in writing with their officially verified signature on it or verbally at the General Meeting so convened. Any consent granted at the General Meeting shall be recorded in the minutes of the General Meeting. If a resolution of a General Meeting is certified by a public deed, the declaration on the granting of the consent shall be specified in the public deed.

Article 10 Participation in the General Meeting

1. A shareholder shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting and vote there either in person or through a proxy. In the case of the Company's book-entered shares, shareholders (or their proxies) registered in the records of book-entered securities of the Company kept pursuant to a special legal regulation as at the decisive date for attendance of the General Meeting shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting and exercise their shareholder's rights there, i.e. also to vote there. If the Company's shares are registered for public trading on a European regulated market, the decisive date for attendance of the General Meeting is the seventh day prior to the General Meeting (the "Decisive Date"). In the case of the Company's shares (securities), shareholders registered in the list of shareholders of the Company as at the Decisive Date (or their proxies) shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting and exercise their shareholder's rights there, i.e. also to vote there, unless it is proved that such registration as at this date does not correspond to the actual state of affairs. The Company is obliged to obtain a statement from the records of book-entered securities as at the Decisive Date by the date of the General Meeting.
2. In order to participate in the General Meeting and in its discussions, a shareholder's proxy must have a power of attorney with an officially verified signature of a person who is a Company shareholder as at the Decisive Date, and it must be clear from this power of attorney whether this power of attorney has only been granted for one General Meeting or whether it has been granted for several General Meetings. If a special form is required for adopting a resolution of the General Meeting, the power of attorney must also be issued in the same form. A shareholder's proxy shall inform the shareholder, sufficiently in advance before the date of the General Meeting, of any and all facts that could be significant for the shareholder's assessment of whether there may be a potential conflict between the shareholder's interests and the proxy's interests. If a shareholder acts on the account of another person in respect of certain shares, such shareholder may exercise the voting rights attached to these shares in a different manner.

3. It is assumed that the person registered in the register of investment instruments as an administrator and/or a person entitled to exercise the rights attached to a share in the Company may represent the shareholder in exercising all the rights attached to the Company's shares registered in the relevant account, including participation in the General Meeting. Instead of a power of attorney, this person must prove their identity by producing a statement from the register of investment instruments; this is not necessary if the Company obtains a statement by itself from such register for the purposes of exercising the rights attached to the shares.
4. Each share with a nominal value of CZK 1,000 shall represent one vote. A shareholder may not exercise its voting rights in the cases stipulated by law. Voting is done by ballot, in which case shareholders will receive the ballots when registering in the attendance list, or by any other suitable manner allowing electronic voting. The General Meeting shall resolve whether voting shall be done by ballot or electronically. The General Meeting shall first vote on proposals submitted by the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board. If such proposals are not submitted or adopted, shareholders' (counter)proposals are voted on.
5. Shareholders attending the General Meeting shall sign the attendance list provided by the Board of Directors, which shall include the shareholder's name and surname or the name or business name and registered office or address of such shareholder and the name and surname, birth identification number and address or registered office of a person acting on its behalf (if it concerns a legal entity), or a proxy of such shareholder, and the numbers of shares and the nominal value of shares entitling the shareholder to vote, or information that the share does not entitle the shareholder to vote. Should a certain person be rejected for registration in the attendance list, this fact and the reason for the rejection shall be recorded in the attendance list. Powers of attorney of shareholders' proxies shall be attached to the attendance list and its accuracy shall be confirmed by the signature of the person convening the General Meeting (in Czech svolavatel valné hromady) or a person appointed by it.
6. Members of the Board of Directors shall always attend the General Meeting. Members of the Supervisory Board attend the General Meeting and the member authorised by the Supervisory Board shall report to the General Meeting on the results of the activities of the Supervisory Board. An auditor may be invited to a relevant part of the General Meeting, so that it may inform the shareholders of its findings, especially at General Meetings approving the Company's financial statements and annual report. The General Meeting shall also be attended by persons providing the technical running of the General Meeting.

The task of the person convening the General Meeting or the person appointed by it is to ensure that the General Meeting elects a chairperson of the General Meeting, a minutes clerk, one or more verifiers of the minutes and a person or persons charged with counting the votes. If no minutes clerk, verifier of the minutes or person charged with counting the votes is elected, the person convening the General Meeting shall appoint them. The General Meeting may also resolve

2. The chairperson of the General Meeting may also be determined by the court (Section 368 of the Business Corporations Act) if the General Meeting is convened by the shareholders specified in Article 9 (2) of these Articles of Association on the basis of a court authorisation. 3. The General Meeting shall be quorate if attended by shareholders holding shares whose nominal value or number exceeds 30% of the Company's registered share capital.
4. The General Meeting shall adopt its resolutions by a simple majority of votes of the shareholders present, unless required otherwise by the Business Corporations Act or by these Articles of Association.
5. 6. The adoption by the General Meeting of a resolution under Section 8 (2) (m) and on a change of the registered share capital also requires the approval of at least a two-thirds majority of votes of the shareholders present for each class of shares, whose rights are to be affected by such resolution.
7. In order for the General Meeting to adopt a resolution on a change in the classes and types of shares, on a change of the rights attached to a certain class of shares, on the restriction of transferability of the registered or book-entered shares, or on the withdrawal of participating securities from trading on a European regulated market, the approval of at least three quarters of the votes of the attending shareholders holding such shares shall be required.
8. A resolution on the exclusion or restriction of the priority right to the acquisition of convertible or priority bonds, on the possibility of distribution of profit to persons other than the shareholders under Section 34 (1) of the Business Corporations Act, on the exclusion or restriction of the priority right of a shareholder during an increase of the registered share capital by subscription for new shares, and on the increase in the registered share capital by in-kind contributions requires the approval of at least three quarters of votes of the shareholders present. If the Company has issued various classes of shares, the aforesaid resolutions require the approval of at least three quarters of votes of the shareholders present for each class of shares, unless the rights of the shareholders holding shares of such classes remain unaffected by these resolutions.
9. In order for the General Meeting to adopt a resolution on the merger of shares, the approval of all shareholders whose shares are to be merged shall be required.
10. The resolutions of the General Meeting on merger, transfer of business assets to one shareholder, demerger or on the conversion of the legal form of the Company must be approved by at least three quarters of the votes of shareholders present, unless stipulated otherwise by law.
11. The public deed must also include the approved wording of the amended Articles of Association (if amended).
12. A shareholder does not have to exercise the voting rights attached to all of its shares in the same manner; this also applies to a shareholder's proxy.
13. Issues not included in the agenda of the General Meeting may only be discussed and resolved on at such General Meeting if all shareholders of the Company agree to it.

14. The course of the General Meeting may be governed by the rules of procedure and voting approved by the General Meeting.

Division of powers does not release the other members of the Board of Directors from the obligation to monitor the management of the Company's matters.

Article 14

Composition of the Board of Directors, Term of Office, Meetings, and Decision-Making

- 1. The Board of Directors of the Company shall consist of five members, elected and recalled by the General Meeting. An individual or a legal entity complying with the conditions set out by law may become a member of the Board of Directors. If a legal entity is a member of the Board of Directors, it shall authorise an individual to represent this entity in the Board of Directors otherwise it shall be represented by a member of its statutory body. The authorised representative of a legal entity which is a member of the Board of Directors must also comply with the conditions set out by law for the performance of office of member of the Board of Directors.
- 2. A person who does not comply with the conditions set out by law for the performance of office of member of the Board of Directors or for whom there is an obstacle to the performance of the office shall not become a member of the Board of Directors, even if elected by the General Meeting. Unless the Business Corporations Act or the Civil Code stipulates otherwise, if a member of the Board of Directors ceases to meet the conditions set out by law for the performance of the office, their office shall be terminated. This shall not affect any rights of third parties acquired in good faith.
- 3. The term of office of a member of the Board of Directors shall be three years. This shall not apply to members of the Board of Directors who will be elected by the General Meeting to be held in 2014; the term of office of the Board of Directors' members elected to office by the General Meeting in 2014 shall be one year. Members of the Board of Directors may be re-elected.
- 4. Provided that the number of members of the Board of Directors does not fall below two, the Board of Directors shall be entitled to appoint substitute members of the Board of Directors until the next General Meeting. The term of office of a substitute member of the Board of Directors shall not be included in the term of office of a member of the Board of Directors.
- 5. The term of office of members of the Board of Directors shall terminate, besides by expiry, upon:
 - (i) the death of the member of the Board of Directors;
 - (ii) the dissolution of a legal entity, unless stipulated otherwise by these Articles of Association or by law;

 - (v) other termination of office in compliance with the law.
6. If a term of office of a member of the Board of Directors is terminated, the General Meeting is required to elect a new member of the Board of Directors within two months. If a legal entity which is a member of the Board of Directors is dissolved and has a legal successor, its legal successor shall become the member of the Board of Directors.
 7. A member of the Board of Directors may resign from the office by a written notice addressed to the Board of Directors and delivered to the address of the Company's registered office or submitted personally at a Board meeting to any of the Board members present at the meeting. Nevertheless, the member of the Board of Directors may not do so at a time which is inconvenient for the Company. The office of the member of the Board of Directors terminates upon expiry of one month after the day on which the aforesaid notice is delivered to the Board of Directors to the address of the Company's registered office or submitted personally at a Board meeting at which the member of the Board of Directors resigned from their office, unless another date is approved by the Board of Directors at the request of the resigning member. A member of the Board of Directors may also resign in such a way that the notice of resignation is included in the agenda of the General Meeting and the resigning member of the Board of Directors notifies their resignation at this General Meeting. In such a case, the member's office shall terminate upon the member's notification of resignation at the General Meeting, unless the General Meeting approves another date at the request of the resigning member of the Board of Directors.
 8. If the Board of Directors is incapable of performing its functions due to an insufficient number of members, the missing members shall be appointed by a court at the proposal of a person legally interested in this for such period of time until any missing member or members of the Board of Directors are duly elected; otherwise, the court may wind up the Company, even without any proposal, and may order its liquidation.
 9. Members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of their peers as the chairperson of the Board of Directors and shall also recall the chairperson.
 10. The Board of Directors shall take decisions by resolutions usually adopted in the course of its meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently as necessary; however, at least twice a year. The meetings shall be presided by the chairperson.

Each member of the Board of Directors shall receive an invitation with the materials for the meeting at least 10 calendar days before the meeting of the Board of Directors. If all members of the Board of Directors agree to this, a meeting of the Board of Directors may be convened by phone, e-mail or fax no later than three calendar days before the meeting. If a meeting of the Board of Directors is convened by phone, it must also be simultaneously convened by fax or e-mail and the invitation must include the aforesaid required information. The time limits stated above do not apply to outside-of-meeting resolutions of the Board of Directors. The chairperson of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the Board of Directors if requested by at least two members of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the Company's registered office, unless the invitation states otherwise. The Board of Directors may, at its discretion, invite to its meetings members of other bodies of the Company, the Company's employees or shareholders. A member of the Supervisory Board may attend the meeting of the Board of Directors if the Supervisory Board so requests. Each member of the Board of Directors shall perform their office in person; however, this does not prevent any member of the Board of Directors from authorising another member of the Board of Directors to vote on behalf of the authorising member of the Board of Directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors in their absence at an individual occasion.
 12. The Board of Directors shall be quorate if attended by at least three members. A resolution of the Board of Directors shall be adopted if approved by a simple majority of members present. Each member of the Board of Directors shall have one vote. In the event of a tie vote, the chairperson's vote shall be decisive.

13. If all members of the Board of Directors agree to this, any member or all members of the Board of Directors may attend the meeting of the Board of Directors and vote by phone or other communications system that allows all persons attending the meeting to hear each other. A person attending the meeting and voting in this manner shall be considered present at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote at the meeting.
14. The Board of Directors may, at the proposal of its chairperson or, if the Board of Directors does not have a chairperson, at the proposal of another member of the Board of Directors, adopt resolutions outside of a meeting by way of a written vote and/or voting by e-mail or fax. Voting may only be performed in this way if all members of the Board of Directors agree to this. The members voting outside of a meeting shall be considered present. The Board of Directors is quorate for outside-of-meeting voting if at least three members of the Board of Directors participate in the voting. A resolution shall be adopted if approved by a simple majority of votes of the members voting outside of its meetings. In the event of a tie vote, the chairperson's vote shall be decisive. All organisational matters related to decision-making outside of the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be arranged for by the chairperson of the Board of Directors. Resolutions outside of meetings of the Board of Directors must be incorporated into the minutes at the nearest meeting of the Board of Directors.
15. Minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors and of their resolutions shall be executed and signed by the chairperson of the Board of Directors and the minutes clerk. The list of attendees shall form an annex to the minutes. A member of the Board of Directors or any other person may be the minutes clerk. The minutes shall describe the manner in which the individual items on the agenda of the meeting of the Board of Directors were discussed and the resolutions adopted on these items, including the numbers of votes by which each resolution was adopted. The minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors must specify the names of the members of the Board of Directors who voted against separate resolutions of the Board of Directors or abstained from voting. The minutes shall also contain information on whether the Board of Directors was quorate during the entire meeting. Members of the Board of Directors not specified in the minutes as voting against shall be understood to have voted for the resolution, unless it is proved otherwise. The costs related with the meetings and other activities of the Board of Directors shall be borne by the Company.

Obligations of Members of the Board of Directors

1. Members of the Board of Directors shall exercise their authority with due care and necessary loyalty, qualification and diligence. A person who acts with diligence and necessary qualification in making business decisions is someone who can reasonably anticipate in good faith that they act on an informed basis and in the justifiable interest of the Company. This shall not apply if any such decisions were not made with necessary loyalty. A member of the Board of Directors may ask the General Meeting for an instruction regarding business management. This shall not affect their duty to act with due care.
2. The rights and duties between the Company and a member of the Board of Directors shall be governed by applicable provisions of the Civil Code on mandate agreements mutatis mutandis, unless anything else arises from the agreement on performance of office or from the provision of the Business Corporations Act.
3. A member of the Board of Directors who breaches their duty of acting with due care shall return to the Company any benefit they obtained by such acting. If the benefit cannot be returned, the relevant member of the Board of Directors shall compensate it to the Company in money. If harm is caused to the Company due to a member's breach of their duty to act with due care, the Company may settle it pursuant to the agreement concluded with the obligor. For such an agreement to be effective, consent of the General Meeting adopted by at least a two-thirds majority of votes of all shareholders is required. Legal actions of the Company restricting the liability of a member of the Board of Directors shall not be taken into account.
4. If a member of the Board of Directors fails to compensate the Company for the damage they caused to it by a breach of their duties in the performance of their office, although they were obliged to compensate the Company for such damage, this member of the Board of Directors shall be liable towards a creditor of the Company for the Company's debt to the extent to which this member of the Board of Directors fails to compensate the Company for the damage, if the creditor is unable to collect the performance from the Company.

A breach of the above obligations shall have the consequences specified in Section 5 of the Business Corporations Act.

6. If a member of the Board of Directors expressly draws the attention of the General Meeting to any of the circumstances specified in paragraph 5 of this Article upon their election to office or if any such circumstance occurs later and the relevant member of the Board of Directors notifies it in writing, it shall be deemed that this member of the Board of Directors is not prohibited from carrying out the activity to which the prohibition under paragraph 5 of this Article applies. This shall not apply if the General Meeting expresses its disagreement with the activity pursuant to paragraph 5 of this Article within one month from the date on which it was notified about the circumstances pursuant to paragraph 5 of this Article. Any notification by a member of the Board of Directors pursuant to this paragraph shall be specified in the invitation to the General Meeting and the agenda of this meeting shall contain the voting on any potential disagreement of the General Meeting with the activity of the member of the Board of Directors pursuant to paragraph 5 of this Article.

3. If a member of a body of the Company intends to conclude an agreement with the Company, they shall inform the body of which they are a member and the Supervisory Board of this without undue delay. They shall also specify under what conditions the agreement is to be concluded. The above shall apply analogously to agreements between the Company and any persons close to a member of a body of the Company or any persons influenced or controlled by a member of a body of the Company, and also if the Company is to secure or affirm any debts of persons specified in this Article or if the Company is to become a co-debtor together with these persons. The Supervisory Board may prohibit a member of a body of the Company from concluding such an agreement with the Company if this is not in the interest of the Company. This paragraph shall not apply to any agreements concluded within the ordinary course of business.

The office of the member of the Supervisory Board terminates upon expiry of one month after the day on which the aforesaid notice is delivered to the Supervisory Board to the address of the Company's registered office or submitted personally at a meeting of the Supervisory Board at which the member of the Supervisory Board resigned from their office, unless the Supervisory Board approves another date at the request of the resigning member. A member of the Supervisory Board may also resign in such a way that the notice of resignation is included in the agenda of the General Meeting and the resigning member of the Supervisory Board notifies their resignation at this General Meeting. In such a case, the member's office shall terminate upon the member's notification

The opinions of the minority of the members of the Supervisory Board shall also be recorded in the minutes, if they so require. The minutes shall also contain information on whether the Supervisory Board was quorate during the entire meeting.

If the Supervisory Board gives its consent to the actions referred to in the first sentence, the members of the Supervisory Board and the Board of Directors who failed to act with due care shall be held liable jointly and severally for any harm.

8. The costs related to the meetings and other activities of the Supervisory Board shall be borne by the Company.

A member of the Audit Committee may resign from the office by a written notice addressed to the Audit Committee and delivered to the address of the Company's registered office or submitted personally to any attending member of the Audit Committee at a meeting of the Audit Committee. However, the member of the Audit Committee may not do so at a time which is inconvenient for the Company. The term of office of a member of the Audit Committee terminates one month following the delivery of the notice to the Audit Committee to the address of the Company's registered office or following the day on which the notice was submitted at a meeting of the Audit Committee at which the member of the Audit Committee resigned from the office, unless the Audit Committee approves another date of termination of the term of office at the request of the resigning member. A member of the Audit Committee may also resign from their office in such a way that an item will be included in the agenda of the General Meeting, under which the resignation from the office will be announced, and the member of the Audit Committee will then announce their resignation at the General Meeting. In such a case, the member's term of office terminates upon announcement of the resignation from the office at the General Meeting, unless the General Meeting determines another date of termination of the term of office at the request of the resigning member. The term of office of a member of the Audit Committee shall also terminate upon election of a new member, unless something else ensues from the resolution of the General Meeting.
6. Members of the Audit Committee participate in the General Meetings of the Company. They are obliged to inform the General Meeting of the results of their activities.

Article 21

Meetings of the Audit Committee and Decision-Making

1. Meetings of the Audit Committee shall be convened as often as required and presided over by the chairperson of the Audit Committee.
2. A meeting of the Audit Committee shall be convened by the chairperson of the Audit Committee and, if the Audit Committee does not have a chairperson, by any member of the Audit Committee, by a written invitation which includes the place, date, time and proposed agenda of the meeting. Each member of the Audit Committee shall receive an invitation with the materials for the meeting at least 10 calendar days before the meeting of the Audit Committee. If all members of the Audit Committee agree to this, a meeting of the Audit Committee may be convened by phone, e-mail or fax no later than three calendar days before the meeting. If a meeting of the Audit Committee is convened by phone, it must also be simultaneously convened by fax or e-mail and the invitation with materials must include the aforesaid required information. The time limits stated above do not apply to outside-of-meeting resolutions of the Audit Committee. The chairperson of the Audit Committee must convene a meeting of the Audit Committee if requested by any member of the Audit Committee. If, in such a case, a meeting of the Audit Committee is not convened within five business days of the delivery of the request for convocation of a meeting of the Audit Committee to the chairperson of the Audit Committee, or if the Audit Committee does not have a chairperson, the meeting of the Audit Committee may be convened and conducted by the given member of the Audit Committee. The meeting of the Audit Committee shall be held at the Company's registered office, unless the invitation provides otherwise. Members of the Audit Committee shall perform their office in person; however, this will not prevent a member authorising another member of the Audit Committee in an individual case to vote on their behalf at a meeting of the Audit Committee in their absence. The Audit Committee may, at its discretion, invite to its meetings members of other bodies of the Company, its employees or shareholders.
3. The Audit Committee is quorate if more than half of its members are present. Every member of the Audit Committee has one vote. Resolutions of the Audit Committee shall be adopted if they are approved by more than half of all the members of the Audit Committee, unless these Articles of Association or the legal regulations require a higher number of votes necessary for the adoption of resolutions. In the event of a tie vote, the chairperson's vote shall be decisive.
4. If all members of the Audit Committee agree to this, any member or all members of the Audit Committee may attend the meeting of the Audit Committee and vote by phone or other communications system that allows all persons attending the meeting to hear one another. Persons who attend the meeting and vote in this manner are considered present at the meeting and are entitled to vote at the meeting.

5. The provisions of Article 14 (14) apply analogously to adopting resolutions outside meetings of the Audit Committee; however, approval by a majority of votes of all the members of the Audit Committee is required for such a resolution to be adopted.
6. The Audit Committee shall execute the minutes of its meetings and resolutions which shall be signed by the chairperson of such meeting (or by all members of the Audit Committee present); the list of attendees will be attached as an annex to the minutes. The minutes must include a description of the discussion on the individual items on the agenda of the Audit Committee and the resolutions adopted, including the number of votes by which the respective resolution was adopted. The minutes of a meeting of the Audit Committee shall specify the names of the members of the Audit Committee who voted for the adoption of the individual resolution or who abstained from voting; if the minutes of the Audit Committee's meeting does not specify whether its member voter for the adoption of the individual resolution or abstained from voting, such member will be deemed to have voted for the adoption of the resolution. The opinions of the minority of the Audit Committee's members shall also be recorded in the minutes, if they require so.
7. The costs related to the meetings and other activities of the Audit Committee shall be borne by the Company.

4. The Supervisory Board shall examine the financial statements and the proposal for the distribution of profit or coverage of losses and provide its statement to the General Meeting.

3. The profit remaining after the payment of tax and other similar liabilities (the "Company's Net Profit"), shall be used in accordance with the resolution of the General Meeting in the following order and in the following way:
 - a) allotments to the Company's other funds, if such exist;
 - b) other purposes determined by the General Meeting;
 - c) the payment of dividends to shareholders;
 - d) the payment of a share in profit to members of the bodies of the Company (royalties).
4. The Company may not pay out profit or funds from its other sources, or provide any advance payments for them, if this would lead to the insolvency of the Company pursuant to another legal regulation.
5. The shareholders' share in the profits of the Company (dividend) shall be based on the proportion of the shareholder's share in the registered share capital of the Company. The Company shall pay out shares in profit at its own cost and risk, by bank transfer to the shareholder's account specified in the list of shareholders; payment of the share in profit in another appropriate manner determined in the resolution of the General Meeting on the distribution of profit among shareholders owning book-entered shares kept in the records of securities pursuant to Article 5 (2) above shall not be affected thereby. In the case of members of the bodies of the Company, the Company shall also pay shares in profit to such persons by bank transfer to the account as notified by them.
6. The Company may provide financial assistance under the conditions defined by the Business Corporations Act.

IV. Registered Share Capital Increase

Article 24

Registered Share Capital Increase

1. The increase of the Company's registered share capital shall be decided on by the General Meeting or, under the conditions stipulated in Sections 511 to 515 of the Business Corporations Act, by the Board of Directors. The resolution shall be adopted in accordance with the conditions stipulated in these Articles of Association and by generally binding legal regulations, and in the manner indicated by them. The resolution on the registered share capital increase shall be certified by a public deed. The Company can increase its registered share capital in the following ways:
 - a) subscription for new shares (Section 474 et seq. of the Business Corporations Act);
 - b) from the Company's own sources (Section 495 et seq. of the Business Corporations Act); and
 - c) conditionally, by the issuing of convertible or priority bonds (Section 505 et seq. of the Business Corporations Act).
2. The registered share capital increase shall become effective upon registration of the new amount of the registered share capital in the Commercial Register, unless the registered share capital is increased by a company whose shares are accepted for trading on a regulated European market or whose issuance is the last condition for such shares being accepted on a regulated European market.
3. If the registered share capital is increased by a company whose shares are accepted for trading on a regulated European market or whose issuance is the last condition for such shares being accepted on a regulated European market, the registered share capital increase shall become effective upon subscription of the shares and payment of the prescribed part of their issue price, unless the resolution on the registered share capital increase stipulates otherwise. However, the registered share capital increase cannot become effective earlier than the shares having been subscribed and later than the new amount of the registered share capital having been registered in the Commercial Register.

Registered Share Capital Increase by Subscription for New Shares

1. The increase of the registered share capital by subscription for new shares shall be admissible only if the shareholders have fully paid the issue price of shares subscribed for before, unless the outstanding part of the issue price is negligible in relation to the amount of the registered share capital and the General Meeting expresses its consent to such increase of the registered share capital. This restriction shall not apply if the registered share capital is being increased by in-kind contributions only.
2. The Board of Directors shall file an application for the registration of the resolution of the General Meeting in the Commercial Register without undue delay. The application for the registration of the resolution of the General Meeting may be combined with an application for registration of the new amount of the registered share capital in the Commercial Register.
3. Each shareholder shall have a priority right to subscribe for part of the new shares of the Company which are being subscribed for with the aim of increasing the registered share capital, in the proportion of their share, if the issue price thereof is to be paid in money. The priority right of shareholders to subscribe for the shares which were not subscribed for by another shareholder is excluded.
4. The Board of Directors shall send information concerning the priority right, which must contain all the essentials stipulated by law to the shareholders, in the manner determined by law and these Articles of Association for convening the General Meeting and, at the same time, shall officially publish such information. The period for the exercise of the priority right must not be shorter than two weeks from the delivery of information to this effect.
5. The priority right of shareholders to subscribe, in the proportion of their shares in the registered share capital, for part of the new shares of the Company which are being subscribed for with the aim of increasing the registered share capital, can only be excluded or restricted by a resolution of the General Meeting on the increase of the registered share capital if it is important for the Company's interests. The priority right may only be restricted or excluded to the same extent in relation to all the shareholders.
6. In its resolution on the increase of the registered share capital, the General Meeting can resolve that a determined portion or all of the shares not subscribed for by the use of priority rights can be subscribed for by shareholders based on an agreement under Section 491 of the Business Corporations Act, or can be offered to a designated interested party or parties, together with the specification of such parties and/or the manner of selecting such party or parties. Should the resolution of the General Meeting not contain the above information, the shares shall be offered for subscription based on a public offer.
7. The General Meeting can also resolve that all shares will be subscribed for by a securities dealer based on a contract for the procurement of the issue of securities. In such case, the contract shall contain the securities dealer's duty to sell the subscribed shares to persons who have a priority right to subscription for shares, upon their request, for a determined price, within the specified period and to the extent of their priority right to subscription for new shares.

Article 26
Registered Share Capital Increase from the Company's Own Sources

1. Based on a resolution of the General Meeting, the Company may issue bonds carrying the right of conversion into shares or priority bonds carrying the right to priority subscription for shares.
2. The General Meeting can resolve that the registered share capital will be increased from the Company's own sources as shown in the Company's equity entry in the approved ordinary, extraordinary or interim financial statements, unless such sources are earmarked for a special purpose and the Company may not change the purpose. Net profit may not be used for increasing the registered share capital based on interim financial statements.
3. The registered share capital may be increased from the Company's sources only if the financial statements on which the resolution of the General Meeting is based are verified by an auditor without a qualified opinion. The auditor shall verify the financial statements for the purposes of the resolution as per the preceding sentence based on data ascertained no later than as of the day which is no more than six months after the date when the resolution of the General Meeting on the increase of the registered share capital from own sources is adopted. If, however, the Company finds out from any interim financial statements that its own sources have been reduced, it will not use the data from the ordinary or extraordinary financial statements, but will use the data recorded in the interim financial statements referred to above.

4. The registered share capital increase may not be higher than the difference between equity and the sum of the registered share capital and the other sources of the Company that are earmarked for a special purpose and where the Company may not change the purpose.
5. The shareholders shall participate in the registered share capital increase in the proportion corresponding to the nominal value of their shares. Company shares owned by the Company or by an entity controlled by the Company or an entity controlled by the Company shall also participate in the registered share capital increase. Where no-par value shares were issued, the shareholders shall participate in the registered share capital increase in the proportion corresponding to the number of the no-par value shares owned by them.
6. The registered share capital increase from the Company's own sources shall be performed either by the issuing of new shares and their distribution among the shareholders free of charge or by increasing the nominal value of the existing shares.

Article 27

Conditional Increase of the Registered Share Capital

1. If the General Meeting resolves to issue convertible or priority bonds, it shall simultaneously adopt a resolution on the increase of the registered share capital to the extent in which the convertible rights associated with the convertible bonds or priority subscription rights associated with priority bonds can be exercised, unless the bonds are supposed to be converted into already issued shares.
2. The Board of Directors shall file an application for registration of the new amount of the registered share capital in the Commercial Register without undue delay following the lapse of the time limit for the exercise of the convertible or priority subscription rights and only to the extent of the convertible or priority subscription rights so exercised.
3. Following the registration of the new amount of the registered share capital in the Commercial Register, the Company shall issue shares to the extent of the convertible and priority subscriptions rights that have been exercised. When converting bonds into shares, the Company shall proceed pursuant to Sections 503, 504 and 537 to 541 of the Business Corporations Act, with necessary modifications.

Article 28

Increase of the Registered Share Capital by the Board of Directors

1. The General Meeting can authorise the Board of Directors to resolve, under the conditions set by the Business Corporations Act and these Articles of Association, on the increase of the Company's registered share capital by subscription for new shares, conditional registered share capital increase or an increase of the registered share capital from the Company's own sources, except for the retained profit, at most by one half of the amount of the registered share capital existing at the time when the Board of Directors is so authorised by the General Meeting. The authorisation as per the preceding sentence shall substitute the resolution of the General Meeting on the registered share capital increase and shall specify
 - a) the nominal value and class of the shares to be issued for the purposes of the registered share capital increase, their type or indication that they will be issued as book-entered securities; and
 - b) which body of the Company will resolve on the valuation of an in-kind contribution based on an expert opinion, if the Board of Directors has been authorised to increase the registered share capital.

Within the scope of the authorisation, the Board of Directors may increase the registered share capital more than once, provided that the aggregate amount of the registered share capital increase does not exceed the limit specified in the authorisation.

2. The authorisation to increase the registered share capital may be granted for no longer than five years from the day on which the General Meeting resolved on the granting of the authorisation. The authorisation may be granted repeatedly.
3. If the Board of Directors resolves to increase the registered share capital by subscription for new shares, the priority right of shareholders to subscribe, in proportions corresponding to their share in the registered share capital, for part of the new shares that are being subscribed for with the aim of increasing the registered share capital, may not be excluded or restricted.
4. The resolution of the Board of Directors to increase the registered share capital shall be certified by a public deed and such resolution shall be registered in the Commercial Register. The Board of Directors cannot resolve on the registered share capital increase outside its meeting in the manner described in Article 14 (14) of these Articles of Association. The application for registration of the resolution of the Board of Directors may be combined with an application for registration of the new amount of the registered share capital in the Commercial Register.

V. Registered Share Capital Reduction

Article 29

Registered Share Capital Reduction

1. The General Meeting shall resolve on reduction of the Company's registered share capital. It shall do so in accordance with the conditions stipulated by these Articles of Association and the legal regulations and in the manner indicated by them.
2. As a result of the reduction of the registered share capital, the registered share capital may not drop below the amount stipulated by law. The registered share capital reduction may not deteriorate the recoverability of claims by creditors.
3. The Company shall use its own shares that it has in its assets to make a compulsory reduction of its registered share capital. In all other cases of registered share capital reduction, the Company shall first use its own shares that it has in its assets. A different procedure for the registered share capital reduction may only be used if the above procedure pursuant to the previous sentence is insufficient for the registered share capital reduction to the extent determined by the General Meeting or if this procedure does not meet the purpose of the registered share capital reduction.
4. Should the Company not have own shares in its assets, or should the use of these shares be insufficient under paragraph 3 of this Article for the registered share capital reduction, the Company shall reduce the nominal value of the shares, or shall refrain from the issue of unpaid shares.
5. A registered share capital reduction by withdrawing shares from circulation on the basis of drawing lots or withdrawing shares from circulation on the basis of a public proposal is inadmissible.
6. The Board of Directors shall file an application for the registration of the resolution of the General Meeting in the Commercial Register without undue delay. The application for the registration of the resolution of the General Meeting may be combined with an application for the registration of the new amount of the registered share capital in the Commercial Register.

Article 30

Registered Share Capital Reduction by Reducing Nominal Value of Shares

1. If the Company's registered share capital is reduced by reducing the nominal value of the shares, it shall be reduced proportionally for all of the Company's shares, unless the purpose of the registered share capital reduction is a waiver of an unpaid part of the shares' issue price.

2. The nominal value of shares or interim certificates shall be reduced by exchanging the shares or interim certificates for shares or interim certificates with a lower nominal value or by marking the lower nominal value on the existing shares or interim certificates with the signature of the member(s) of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall, in a manner set out by the Business Corporations Act and the Articles of Association for convening the General Meeting, invite the shareholders holding shares or interim certificates to submit them for procedure as described in the previous sentence within the time period determined by the General Meeting. A shareholder that is in default in submitting the shares or interim certificates within the specified period shall not be authorised to exercise any shareholder rights attached to the shares or interim certificates until their submission and the Board of Directors shall apply the procedure set out in Sections 537 to 541 of the Business Corporations Act.
3. The nominal value of book-entered shares shall be reduced by changing the information on their nominal value in the record of book-entered securities defined by law, based on the Company's instruction. The instruction shall be accompanied with a statement from the Commercial Register evidencing the registered share capital reduction.

Article 31

Registered Share Capital Reduction by Refraining from Issue of Shares

1. The General Meeting can resolve on a reduction of the registered share capital by refraining from issuing shares to the extent the subscribers are in default in paying the nominal value of the shares, unless the Company expels the defaulting shareholder from the Company.
2. If the Company has issued interim certificates for unpaid shares, the issue of unpaid shares shall be refrained from in such a manner that the Board of Directors shall invite the shareholder that is in default in paying the issue price or part of it to submit its interim certificate within a period determined by the General Meeting. The Company shall not issue the shares represented by the interim certificate and it shall return to the subscriber, without undue delay after the effectiveness of the registered share capital reduction, the part of the issue price paid by the subscriber, reduced by the Company's claims against the subscriber. The shareholder that is in default in submitting the interim certificate within the specified period shall not be entitled to exercise the shareholder rights attached to it until its submission and the Board of Directors shall apply the procedure set out in Sections 537 to 541 of the Business Corporations Act.

VI. Amendments of the Articles of Association

Article 32

Amendments of the Articles of Association

1. The Articles of Association may be amended or altered on the basis of a resolution adopted by the General Meeting of the Company or on the basis of another legal fact.
2. Should the General Meeting resolve to split shares or merge several shares into one, change the type or class of shares or restrict or change the transferability of registered or book-entered shares, the appropriate amendment of the Articles of Association shall be effective as of the day of the entry of such facts into the Commercial Register. Other amendments of the Articles of Association that are subject to the resolution of the General Meeting shall become effective upon the General Meeting adopting such a resolution, unless it ensues from the resolution or from law that they shall become effective later.
3. A resolution of a General Meeting as a result of which the terms of the Articles of Association change shall replace a resolution on amendments of the Articles of Association. Such resolution of the General Meeting shall be certified by a public deed. Should it not ensue from the resolution of the General Meeting in what way the Articles of Association should be amended, their terms shall be amended by the Board of Directors in compliance with the resolution of the General Meeting. The resolution of the Board of Directors amending the terms of the Articles of Association shall be certified by a public deed.

4. If the terms of the Articles of Association are amended, the Board of Directors of the Company shall draw up the full wording of the Articles of Association without undue delay after any member of the Board of Directors learns about it.
5. Upon a change to the class or type of shares, the rights attached to such class or type of shares shall also change as of the effective date of the amendment to the Articles of Association, irrespective of the day when the shares are exchanged.
6. Upon transformation of book-entered shares into certificated shares and upon transformation of certificated shares into book-entered shares, the legal position of a shareholder will only change upon the replacement of the shares or upon the shares being declared invalid.

VII. Winding-up and Termination of the Company's Existence

Article 33 Winding-up of the Company

1. The Company shall be wound up by a legal act, expiry of a term, decision of a public authority or upon completion of the purpose for which it was formed and for other reasons stipulated by law. A legal entity must be wound up with liquidation, unless all its assets are acquired by a legal successor or where otherwise stipulated by law.
2. The Company shall be wound up:
 - a) with liquidation
 - (i) upon expiry of the term for which it was formed;

 - b) without liquidation upon transformation of the Company pursuant to a special legal regulation as of the effective date of such transformation;
 - c) without liquidation upon cancellation of bankruptcy after the fulfilment of a distribution order or due to the fact that the assets are utterly insufficient provided that the Company's insolvency has been proven; however, the Company will enter the liquidation if certain assets appear after the termination of the insolvency proceedings.

Article 38

Interpretation Provision

If any provision of the Articles of Association appears invalid, ineffective or unenforceable due to the applicable legislation or changes therein, or if any provision is missing, the other provisions of the Articles of Association shall remain unaffected by this fact. Instead of such a provision, the provision of a relevant generally binding legal regulation which due to its nature and purpose is the closest to the contemplated purpose of such a provision, or, if the legal regulation does not include such a provision, a solution customary in business relations, shall apply.
