2. The Company keeps a list of shareholders. For book-entered shares the list of shareholders is replaced by records of book-entered securities kept pursuant to a special legal regulation.
3. Only the persons recorded in the list of shareholders are deemed to be the Company's shareholders holding shares. The Company shall record a new shareholder in the list of shareholders without undue delay after it is presented with proof that there has been a change of shareholder. It shall also be deemed that the person in whose owner account the particular book-entered share is registered is the owner of the book-entered share. If a shareholder caused that it is not registered in the list of shareholders or that a record in the list of shareholders does not correspond to the actual state of affairs, it may not seek the invalidity of a resolution of the General Meeting due to the fact that the Company did not allow it to take part in the General Meeting or to vote at the General Meeting on the basis of this fact.
4. The list of shareholders of the Company shall specify the class of the share (if shares of several classes are to be issued), its nominal value, the name and address or the registered office of the shareholder, number of the relevant bank account, numerical designation of the share, and changes in the recorded information. The list of shareholders shall also contain information on any separation or transfer of a separately transferable right. Upon the written request of a shareholder and at its expense, the Company shall provide the shareholder with a copy of the list of shareholders who are owners of registered shares, or the required parts of the list without undue delay after receiving the request.
5. The Company's shares are transferable in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Business Corporations Act, Act No. 89/2012 Coll., the Civil Code, as amended (the "Civil Code"), and Act No. 191/1950 Coll., the Cheques Act, as amended (the "Cheques Act"). The transferability of the Company's shares is not restricted.
6. The Company may issue shares as global shares (certificates) replacing the individual shares. The rights arising from a global share (certificate) cannot be divided into shares (podily) by transfer. An owner of a global share (certificate) is entitled to replacement of the global share (certificate) for individual shares or for other global shares (certificates) based on a written request addressed to the Board of Directors.

The Company is obliged within two months after the delivery of the written request, to replace the global share (certificate) for individual shares or for other global shares (certificates).

7. Under the conditions stipulated by the Business Corporations Act, the following rights may be transferred separately: the right to a share in profit and in other Company's own sources, the priority right to subscribe for shares and convertible and priority bonds, the right to a share in the liquidation balance and other similar property rights specified by these Articles of Association.
8. If a share is owned by more than one person, all these persons are co-owners of the share and, in relation to the Company, the share is administered by the administrator of the co-owned item. Mutual relationships between the co-owners of shares are governed analogously by the provisions of the Civil Code regulating co-ownership.
9. Unless stipulated otherwise, the procedure for increasing and reducing the registered share capital shall be governed by the relevant provisions of the Business Corporations Act. When increasing the registered share capital by subscription for new shares, the conditions and manner of share payment shall be stipulated by the General Meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Business Corporations Act and these Articles of Association.
10. When subscribing for shares in connection with an increase in the registered share capital, the subscriber shall be obliged to pay at least 30% of their nominal value, unless a higher percentage is required in the resolution of the General Meeting on an increase of the registered share capital, and a share premium, if any, in the case of monetary contributions, and after all in-kind contributions have been made. The subscriber shall pay the remaining portion of the issue price of these shares no later than six months after the registered capital increase takes effect. Until the issue price of the shares is paid, the shareholder's rights and obligations relating to unpaid shares are represented by interim certificates issued by the Company without undue delay after the registered capital increase takes effect.
11. A subscriber who delays the payment of the issue price of the shares subscribed for by it or a determined portion of such price within the period stipulated by the General Meeting, these Articles of Association or the Business Corporations Act, must pay to the Company default interest on the amount due, which shall equal twice the amount of the default interest stipulated by another applicable legal regulation. If a subscriber is in delay with respect to making a contribution or a part of it, the Board of Directors shall call on the subscriber, by sending it a registered letter, to fulfil its obligation within 60 days of the receipt of such request. After the expiration of such period to no effect, the Board of Directors shall expel the defaulting shareholder from the Company in respect of the shares in relation to which it failed to fulfil its obligation to make a contribution and shall invite it to submit its interim certificate (if issued) within a reasonable period set by the Board of Directors. This shall not apply if the Board of Directors takes any other measure. If no interim certificate has been issued, the unpaid shares shall pass to the Company based on the relevant expulsion resolution of the Board of Directors. The expelled shareholder guarantees the payment of the issue price of the shares subscribed by it. Should the expelled shareholder fail to submit the interim certificate (if issued) within the specified time limit, the Board of Directors shall declare the interim certificate invalid and shall inform the shareholder of this fact in writing. The Board of Directors shall notify the shareholders of its resolution in the manner prescribed by the Business Corporations Act and these Articles of Association for convening a General Meeting and shall simultaneously publish the resolution.
12. The Company shall sell shares to a person approved by the General Meeting, provided that this person pays the issue price of the shares; otherwise the Company shall reduce the registered share capital by the nominal value of the interim certificate or unpaid shares.
13. Performance obtained by the Company from the sale of returned shares shall be used as a consideration for the performance provided by the expelled shareholder for the payment of the issue price, and the Company shall pay such performance to the expelled shareholder without undue delay. The Company shall offset its receivables due from the expelled shareholder as a result of a breach by the shareholder of its obligations against such performance. The Company may also offset any reasonable expenses that it incurs in relation to declaring the interim certificate invalid, while proving the amount of the offset receivable to the shareholder.

If the agenda of the General Meeting includes any amendments of the Articles of Association of the Company, the invitation to the General Meeting shall contain at least a brief and concise description and justification of the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association. The full draft amendments of the Articles of Association shall be published by the Board of Directors together with the invitation to the General Meeting on the Company's website. The Company will allow each shareholder to view the draft amendments of the Articles of Association at its registered office free of charge within the time limit specified in the invitation to the General Meeting. A shareholder may request that a copy of the draft Articles of Association be sent to it at its own expense and risk. Shareholders must be informed of these rights in the invitation to the General Meeting.
8. The explanation under Article 6 (5) above regarding matters relating to the relevant General Meeting will be provided by the Company to the shareholders directly at the General Meeting. If this is not possible due to the complexity of the explanation, the Company will provide the explanation to all shareholders within 15 days after the date of the General Meeting, even if this is no longer necessary for the consideration of actions of the General Meeting or for the exercise of shareholders' rights at the General Meeting, by publishing it on the website of the Company. The information contained in the explanation must be clear and must provide a sufficient and true view of the enquiry concerned. The explanation above may be provided in the form of a summary statement on several similar issues. It shall be deemed that shareholders have been provided with the explanation even if the information is published on the Company's website no later than on the day preceding the date of the General Meeting and is available to the shareholders for viewing at the place where the General Meeting is to take place. If the information is provided to a shareholder, any other shareholder is entitled to request this information even without adhering to the procedure pursuant to Section 357 of the Business Corporations Act.

9. Any shareholder is entitled to file proposals and counterproposals regarding any matters included in the agenda of the General Meeting.
10. Any proposals and counterproposals delivered to the Company no later than three days before the General Meeting shall be published by the Board of Directors without undue delay on the Company's website. If the proposals and counterproposals contain justifications, the Board of Directors shall also publish these justifications along with them. If the proposals and counterproposals are delivered at the latest five days before the General Meeting, the Board of Directors shall also publish its opinion on the received proposals and counterproposals without undue delay.
11. A shareholder may file its proposals in relation to the matters which are to be included in the agenda of the General Meeting also before the invitation to the General Meeting is published. The Board of Directors shall publish any proposal delivered to the Company at least five days before the invitation to the General Meeting is published and its opinion on it along with the invitation to the General Meeting on the Company's website. Paragraph 10 of this Article applies analogously to any proposals delivered after this time limit.
12. The General Meeting may be cancelled or postponed until a later date. The Company shall inform the shareholders of the cancellation or postponement of the General Meeting in the manner stipulated by law and these Articles of Association regarding the convocation of the General Meeting at least one week before the originally announced date of the General Meeting; otherwise it will pay to the shareholders who appeared at the General Meeting according to the original invitation the related reasonably expended costs. If the General Meeting was convened on the basis of a request of the shareholders described in Article 9(2), the General Meeting can only be cancelled or postponed if these shareholders agree with it.
13. A substitute General Meeting shall be convened by the Board of Directors by a new invitation, which does not have to contain any justification of the draft resolution of the General Meeting or opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company on each proposed matter included in the agenda of the General Meeting pursuant to paragraph 5(d) of this Article above, in the manner specified in this Article; however, the period specified therein shall be reduced to 15 days. The invitation to the substitute General Meeting shall be sent to the shareholders no later than 15 days after the date for which the original General Meeting was convened, and the substitute General Meeting shall be held within six weeks of the day of the original General Meeting. Its agenda must be unchanged. The substitute General Meeting shall be quorate regardless of the number of the shareholders present and the nominal value of their shares. Resolutions on matters that were not included in the proposed agenda of the original General Meeting may only be adopted at the substitute General Meeting if all shareholders agree with it.
14. A General Meeting that was not convened duly and on time can only be held if all shareholders of the Company agree with it. Each shareholder must provide their consent in writing with their officially verified signature on it or verbally at the General Meeting so convened. Any consent granted at the General Meeting shall be recorded in the minutes of the General Meeting. If a resolution of a General Meeting is certified by a public deed, the declaration on the granting of the consent shall be specified in the public deed.

Article 10 Participation in the General Meeting

1. A shareholder shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting and vote at it. The voting by a shareholder at the General Meeting may take place provided that the statutory conditions and the conditions specified in these Articles of Association (or also contained in the rules of procedure and voting approved by the General Meeting) are complied with, inter alia in the form of correspondence voting in accordance with Section 398 (4) of the Business Corporations Act; the correspondence voting is however only and solely allowed if its conditions are specified in the invitation to the General Meeting (or in the draft resolution in the case of the per rollam decision-making). The conditions for the correspondence voting shall be determined by the Board of Directors in accordance with law and these Articles of Association.

2. A shareholder shall participate in the General Meeting either in person or through a proxy. The participation of a person designated by a shareholder pursuant to Section 399 (2) of the Business Corporations Act shall not be permitted, with the exception of participation of a person providing assistance to a shareholder with a disability. In the case of the Company's book-entered shares, shareholders (or their proxies) registered in the records of book-entered securities of the Company kept pursuant to a special legal regulation as at the decisive date for attendance of the General Meeting shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting and exercise their shareholder's rights there, i.e. also to vote there. If the Company's shares are registered for public trading on a European regulated market, the decisive date for attendance of the General Meeting is the seventh day prior to the General Meeting (the "Decisive Date"). In the case of the Company's certificated shares, shareholders registered in the list of shareholders of the Company as at the Decisive Date (or their proxies) shall be entitled to attend the General Meeting and exercise their shareholder's rights there, i.e. also to vote there, unless it is proved that such registration as at this date does not correspond to the actual state of affairs. The Company is obliged to obtain a statement from the records of book-entered securities as at the Decisive Date by the date of the General Meeting.
3. In order to participate in the General Meeting and in its discussions, a shareholder's proxy must have a power of attorney with an officially verified signature of a person who is a Company shareholder as at the Decisive Date, and it must be clear from this power of attorney whether this power of attorney has only been granted for one General Meeting or whether it has been granted for several General Meetings. If a special form is required for adopting a resolution of the General Meeting, it is sufficient if the power of attorney is granted in writing with an officially verified signature of the principal. A shareholder's proxy shall inform the shareholder, sufficiently in advance before the date of the General Meeting, of any and all facts that could be significant for the shareholder's assessment of whether there may be a potential conflict between the shareholder's interests and the proxy's interests. If a shareholder acts on the account of another person in respect of certain shares, such shareholder may exercise the voting rights attached to these shares in a different manner.
4. It is assumed that the person registered in the register of investment instruments as an administrator and/or a person entitled to exercise the rights attached to a share in the Company may represent the shareholder in exercising all the rights attached to the Company's shares registered in the relevant account, including participation in the General Meeting. Instead of a power of attorney, this person must prove their identity by producing a statement from the register of investment instruments; this is not necessary if the Company obtains a statement by itself from such register for the purposes of exercising the rights attached to the shares.
5. Each share with a nominal value of CZK 1,000 shall represent one vote. A shareholder may not exercise its voting rights in the cases stipulated by law. Voting is done by ballot, in which case shareholders will receive the ballots upon registration in the attendance list, or by any other suitable manner using technical means and allowing for electronic (or other technical) voting: the voting conditions using technical means shall be determined by the Board of Directors and specified in the invitation to the General Meeting. The General Meeting shall resolve whether voting shall be done by ballot or using technical means (e.g. by approval of the rules of procedure and voting for the relevant General Meeting containing the terms of such a vote). It can also be voted using technical means in favour of the approval of the rules of procedure and voting, which specify that the vote at the General Meeting shall be performed in a manner using technical means allowing for verification of identity of any person entitled to exercise the right to vote. The General Meeting shall first vote on proposals submitted by the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board. If such proposals are not submitted or adopted, shareholders' (counter)proposals are voted on.
6. Shareholders attending the General Meeting shall sign the attendance list provided by the Board of Directors, which shall include the shareholder's name and surname or the name or business name and registered office or address of such shareholder and the name and surname, birth identification number and address or registered office of a person acting on its behalf (if it concerns a legal entity), or a proxy of such shareholder or a person providing assistance to a shareholder (proxy) with a disability, and the numbers of shares and the nominal value of shares entitling the shareholder to vote, or information that the share does not entitle the shareholder to vote. Should a certain person be rejected for registration in the attendance list, this fact and the reason for the rejection shall be recorded in the attendance list. Powers of attorney of shareholders' proxies shall be attached to the attendance list and its accuracy shall be confirmed by the signature of the person convening the General Meeting (in Czech svolavatel valné hromady) or a person appointed by it.

7. Correspondence voting of shareholders may only and solely take place if (i) the conditions for this form of voting determined by the Board of Directors are specified in the invitation to the General Meeting, and shareholders may submit their votes in writing before the General Meeting within a time limit determined by the Board of Directors and specified by the Board of Directors in the invitation to the General Meeting (the votes submitted at any later moment will not be taken into account); and (ii) the relevant correspondence vote meets the requisites specified below in this paragraph; otherwise the correspondence vote or the participation of the shareholder voting in this manner will not be taken into account. The correspondence vote must include, in particular, the following:
 - a) name and surname, residence address and date of birth in the case of a shareholder – individual, or name or business name, registered office and identification number of the shareholder – legal entity (in the case of foreign legal entities, a similar number that sufficiently identifies the legal entity may be specified, if any such number has been assigned by the relevant foreign institution or authority);
 - b) the information specified above in subparagraph a) in relation to any person who represents a shareholder (legal entity) and/or a person who acts on behalf of the shareholder;
 - c) number of the shares and nominal value of the shares entitling the shareholder to the vote (or an indication that the shares do not entitle the shareholder to the vote);
 - d) the item on the agenda to which the correspondence voting relates or the wording of the draft put to the vote;
 - e) if a shareholder is represented by a proxy, that proxy is obliged to attach to the voting form a written power of attorney to represent the shareholder in the exercise of voting and other shareholder rights;
 - f) an officially verified signature of the voting person. If a correspondence vote has been signed by the representative (proxy) on behalf of the shareholder, it is necessary to prove the authorisation of the representative (proxy) to represent the shareholder. In order to prove the right to represent a shareholder, the relevant provisions of this Article 10 shall apply by analogy. Further information regarding the proving of the authorisation of the representative (proxy) to represent a shareholder in the voting by way of a correspondence vote shall be specified in the invitation to the General Meeting (in the draft resolution).

The shareholder may not change or cancel a submitted correspondence vote. Nevertheless, the shareholder may be present at the General Meeting in one of the manners stipulated in this Article. In such a case, no account shall be taken of the correspondence votes that the shareholder may have submitted earlier in respect of any voting that is to take place after that shareholder's registration in the attendance list. Shareholders voting by the correspondence vote shall be deemed to be present for the purposes of assessing whether a resolution has been adopted.

8. Any documents by which the shareholder or the shareholder's representative proves his/her/its identity, which are produced by foreign authorities or institutions or to which certification clauses of such foreign authorities or institutions are attached, shall contain another certification, i.e. shall be superlegalised or provided with an apostille or other clause (certification), which is required in official contact by the Czech authorities for similar foreign documents (or certification). If any such documents, clauses or certifications are made out in a foreign language (with the exception of the Slovak language), an official translation thereof into the Czech language shall also be attached.
9. Members of the Board of Directors shall always attend the General Meeting. Members of the Supervisory Board attend the General Meeting and the member authorised by the Supervisory Board shall report to the General Meeting on the results of the activities of the Supervisory Board. A member of the Board of Directors and a member of the Supervisory Board must be permitted to take the floor whenever they request this. An auditor may be invited to a relevant part of the General Meeting, so that it may inform the shareholders of its findings, especially at General Meetings approving the Company's financial statements and annual report. Other persons invited by the Board of Directors may also participate in General Meetings as guests, unless the shareholders resolve by the majority of votes specified under Article 11 (4) to exclude them from the General Meeting. The General Meeting shall also be attended by persons providing the technical running of the General Meeting.

Article 11
General Meeting Procedures and Decision-Making

1. The General Meeting shall be opened by the person convening the General Meeting or a person appointed by it and shall be presided over by this person until the election of a chairperson. The same applies if a chairperson of the General Meeting is not elected. If the General Meeting is convened by a body, this body must authorise one of its members (or resolve to authorise another person) to preside over the General Meeting until the chairperson is elected or, as the case may be, if no chairperson of the General Meeting is elected. The task of the person convening the General Meeting or the person appointed by it is to ensure that the General Meeting elects a chairperson of the General Meeting, a minutes clerk, one or more verifiers of the minutes and a person or persons charged with counting the votes. If no minutes clerk, verifier of the minutes or person charged with counting the votes is elected, the person convening the General Meeting shall appoint them. The General Meeting may also resolve that a single person may act as both the chairperson of the General Meeting and the verifier of the minutes. The General Meeting may resolve that the chairperson of the General Meeting shall also count the votes, provided that this does not endanger the due course of the General Meeting.
2. The chairperson of the General Meeting may also be determined by the court if the General Meeting is convened by the shareholders specified in Article 9 (2) of these Articles of Association on the basis of a court authorisation. Following the election of the chairperson, the General Meeting shall be conducted by its new chairperson.
3. The General Meeting shall be quorate if attended by shareholders holding shares whose nominal value or number exceeds 30% of the Company's registered share capital.
4. The General Meeting shall adopt its resolutions by a simple majority of votes of the shareholders present, unless required otherwise by the Business Corporations Act or by these Articles of Association.
5. In order for the General Meeting to adopt a resolution under Section 8 (2) (m), a resolution on an amendment of the Articles of Association, a resolution as a consequence of which the Articles of Association are amended, a resolution on the authorisation of the Board of Directors to increase the registered share capital, a resolution on the possibility of offsetting a shareholder's receivable due from the Company against a receivable of the Company in respect of the payment of the issue price of shares, a resolution to issue convertible or priority bonds, a resolution on the winding-up of the Company with liquidation and a resolution on the distribution of the liquidation balance, the approval of at least a two-thirds majority of votes of the shareholders present is required.
6. The adoption by the General Meeting of a resolution under Section 8 (2) (m) and on a change of the registered share capital also requires the approval of shareholders in respect of each class of shares whose rights are to be affected by that resolution; in the case of voting in respect of a single class of shares, at least a two-thirds majority of votes of the shareholders present shall be required.
7. In order for the General Meeting to adopt a resolution on a change in the classes and types of shares, on a change of the rights attached to a certain class of shares, on the restriction of transferability of the registered shares, or on the withdrawal of participating securities from trading on a European regulated market, the approval of at least three quarters of the votes of the attending shareholders holding such shares shall be required.
8. A resolution on the exclusion or restriction of the priority right to the acquisition of convertible or priority bonds, on the distribution of profit or other Company's own sources to persons other than the shareholders under Section 34 (1) of the Business Corporations Act, on the exclusion or restriction of the priority right of a shareholder during an increase of the registered share capital by subscription for new shares, and on the increase in the registered share capital by in-kind contributions requires the approval of at least three quarters of the votes of present shareholders. If the Company has issued various classes of shares, the aforesaid resolutions require the approval of shareholders for each class of share the rights of which are affected by such resolution; when voting under the class of share, at least a three quarters majority of votes of the present shareholders is required.

9. In order for the General Meeting to adopt a resolution on the merger of shares or on a change in the class of shares to shares with which no voting rights are associated, the approval of all affected shareholders shall be required.
10. The resolutions of the General Meeting on transformation of the Company must be approved by at least three quarters of the votes of shareholders present, unless stipulated otherwise by law.
11. Resolutions of the General Meeting on matters under paragraph 5 of this Article and on other matters which take effect upon their registration in the Commercial Register must be certified by a public deed. The public deed must also include the approved wording of the amended Articles of Association (if amended).
12. A shareholder does not have to exercise the voting rights attached to all of its shares in the same manner; this also applies to a shareholder's proxy.
13. Issues not included in the agenda of the General Meeting may only be discussed and resolved on at such General Meeting if all shareholders of the Company agree to it.
14. The course of the General Meeting may be governed by the rules of procedure and voting approved by the General Meeting.

Article 12
Minutes of the General Meeting

1. Minutes of the General Meeting shall be prepared by the minutes clerk within 15 days of its conclusion.
2. The minutes of the General Meeting shall include:
 - a) the Company's business name and registered office;
 - b) the place and time of the General Meeting;
 - c) the name of the General Meeting's chairperson, minutes clerk, verifiers of the minutes and person(s) charged with vote counting;
 - d) a description of the discussion of individual matters on the agenda of the General Meeting;
 - e) the resolutions of the General Meeting and a record of voting results;
 - f) the content of the protest of a shareholder, member of the Board of Directors or of the Supervisory Board concerning a resolution of the General Meeting; and
 - g) other essentials, if stipulated by law for exceptional cases.
3. Submitted proposals and declarations and the attendance list shall be attached to the minutes.
4. The minutes shall be signed by the minutes clerk, by the chairperson of the General Meeting or by the person convening the General Meeting and by the minutes verifier(s).
5. The minutes of General Meetings, invitations to the General Meetings, as well as attendance lists shall be kept in the Company's archives for the whole period of the Company's existence.

B. Board of Directors

Article 13
Position and Powers of the Board of Directors

1. The Board of Directors is the statutory body of the Company. It manages the Company's business and acts on the Company's behalf in the manner specified in Article 36 of these Articles of Association.
2. The Board of Directors has all the powers which these Articles of Association, the legal regulations or a decision of a public authority does not reserve to another body of the Company. The Board of Directors is in charge of the Company's business management.

3. The Board of Directors shall be authorised, in particular, to:
 - a) convene the General Meeting under the conditions stipulated by law and execute its resolutions;
 - b) submit to the General Meeting for approval:
 - (i) at least once a year a report on the Company's business activities and on the state of its assets, in which it shall assess the state of the Company's assets and business activities in the accounting period in respect of which the financial statements are prepared and the anticipated further development of the Company's business activities, and which must be prepared within four months of the end of the relevant accounting period;
 - (ii) ordinary, extraordinary and consolidated financial statements, and interim financial statements;
 - (iii) proposals for the distribution of profit and/or other Company's own sources, including determination of the amount and manner of payment of shares in profit and/or in other Company's own sources and royalties (in Czech tantiéma), and proposals for coverage of losses;

 - (v) information on the purchase of the Company's own shares under Section 304 (2) of the Business Corporations Act;

 - (viii) the remuneration (compensation) policy and the remuneration (compensation) report pursuant to the Act on Business Activities on the Capital Market; and
 - (ix) proposals for significant transactions under the conditions specified in Section 121s et seq. of the Act on Business Activities on the Capital Market;
 - c) send the shareholders no less than 30 days before the General Meeting financial statements which are to be submitted to the General Meeting for approval, or selected data from them, including specification of the time and place where the financial statements may be inspected;
 - d) grant and recall procuration (in Czech: prokura) and powers of attorney to the Company's representatives; and
 - e) establish obligatory funds of the Company under the generally binding legal regulations and, in cooperation with the Supervisory Board, stipulate the manner of their creation and drawing.
4. The Board of Directors shall be accountable for all its activities to the General Meeting and decides on Company matters collectively. The powers of the Board of Directors may be divided among individual members based on their particular qualifications. Division of powers does not release the other members of the Board of Directors from the obligation to monitor the management of the Company's matters.

Article 14

Composition of the Board of Directors, Term of Office, Meetings, and Decision-Making

1. The Board of Directors of the Company shall consist of six members, elected and recalled by the General Meeting. An individual or a legal entity complying with the conditions set out by law may become a member of the Board of Directors. If a legal entity is a member of the Board of Directors, it shall authorise without undue delay a single individual, who will meet the requirements and preconditions for the performance of office set out by law for a member of an elected body, to represent this entity in the Board of Directors. If the legal entity does not authorise a representative pursuant to this paragraph and if the representative is not registered in the Commercial Register within three months from the date on which the legal entity's office was established, its office shall be terminated. If an individual's authorisation pursuant to Section 46 (3) of the Business Corporations Act has expired, the legal entity shall authorise without undue delay another individual to represent that legal entity in the Board of Directors; if, however, the individual is not registered in the Commercial Register within three months from the date of expiry of the authorisation of the previous representative, the office of that legal entity as a member of the Board of Directors shall be terminated.

2. A person who does not comply with the conditions set out by law for the performance of office of member of the Board of Directors or for whom there is an obstacle to the performance of the office shall not become a member of the Board of Directors, even if elected by the General Meeting. Unless the Business Corporations Act or the Civil Code stipulates otherwise, if a member of the Board of Directors ceases to meet the conditions set out by law for the performance of the office, their office shall be terminated. This shall not affect any rights of third parties acquired in good faith.
3. The term of office of a member of the Board of Directors shall be three years. Members of the Board of Directors may be re-elected.
4. ~~Provided that the number of members of the Board of Directors has not fallen below one half, the Board of Directors may appoint substitute members until the next General Meeting. Provided that the number of members of the Board of Directors does not fall below two, the Board of Directors shall be entitled to appoint substitute members of the Board of Directors until the next General Meeting.~~ The term of office of a substitute member of the Board of Directors shall not be included in the term of office of a member of the Board of Directors.
5. The term of office of members of the Board of Directors shall terminate, besides by expiry, upon:
 - (i) the death of the member of the Board of Directors;
 - (ii) the dissolution of a legal entity, unless stipulated otherwise by these Articles of Association or by law;
 - (iii) resignation of the member of the Board of Directors;
 - (iv) recall of the member of the Board of Directors by the General Meeting;
 - (v) election of a new member of the Board of Directors by the General Meeting, unless provided otherwise in the resolution of the General Meeting; or
 - (v) other termination of office in compliance with the law.
6. If a term of office of a member of the Board of Directors is terminated, the General Meeting is required to elect a new member of the Board of Directors within two months. If a legal entity which is a member of the Board of Directors is dissolved and has a legal successor, its legal successor shall become the member of the Board of Directors.
7. A member of the Board of Directors may resign from the office by a written notice addressed to the Board of Directors and delivered to the address of the Company's registered office. The Board of Directors shall subsequently discuss the resignation of the member of the Board of Directors no later than at the next meeting following the delivery of the relevant resignation statement to the Company. The term of office of such a member of the Board of Directors shall be terminated on the day on which that member's resignation was discussed or should have been discussed by the Board of Directors, unless another date of termination of office is approved by the Board of Directors at the request of the resigning member of the Board of Directors. A member of the Board of Directors may also resign by announcing their resignation at a meeting of the Board of Directors or by submitting a written statement of resignation at a meeting of the Board of Directors to any member of the Board of Directors present, with that member's office to be terminated upon the expiry of two months after such announcement or submission of a written statement, unless another date of termination of office is approved by the Board of Directors at the request of the resigning member of the Board of Directors. A member of the Board of Directors may also resign in such a way that the notice of resignation is included in the agenda of the General Meeting and the resigning member of the Board of Directors notifies their resignation at this General Meeting. In such a case, the member's office shall terminate upon the member's notification of resignation at the General Meeting, unless the General Meeting approves another date of termination of office at the request of the resigning member of the Board of Directors. A member of the Board of Directors may not resign at a time that is inconvenient for the Company.

8. If the Board of Directors is incapable of performing its functions due to an insufficient number of members, the missing members shall be appointed by a court at the proposal of a person legally interested in this for such period of time until any missing member or members of the Board of Directors are duly elected; otherwise, the court may wind up the Company, even without any proposal, and may order its liquidation.
9. Members of the Board of Directors shall elect one of their peers as the chairperson of the Board of Directors and shall also recall the chairperson.
10. The Board of Directors shall take decisions by resolutions usually adopted in the course of its meetings. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held as frequently as necessary; however, at least twice a year. The meetings shall be presided by the chairperson.
11. A meeting of the Board of Directors shall be convened by the chairperson of the Board of Directors and, if the Board of Directors does not have a chairperson, by any member of the Board of Directors, by a written invitation which includes the place, date, time and proposed agenda of the meeting. Each member of the Board of Directors shall receive an invitation with the materials for the meeting at least 10 calendar days before the meeting of the Board of Directors. A meeting of the Board of Directors may be convened by phone, e-mail or fax, or with the use of any other suitable technical means, no later than three calendar days before the meeting. If a meeting of the Board of Directors is convened by phone or with the use of any other suitable technical means, it must also be simultaneously convened by fax or e-mail and the invitation must include the aforesaid required information. The time limits stated above do not apply to outside-of-meeting resolutions of the Board of Directors. The chairperson of the Board of Directors must convene a meeting of the Board of Directors if requested by at least two members of the Board of Directors or the Supervisory Board. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at the Company's registered office, unless the invitation states otherwise. The Board of Directors may, at its discretion, invite to its meetings members of other bodies of the Company, the Company's employees or shareholders, or other persons. A member of the Supervisory Board may attend the meeting of the Board of Directors if the Supervisory Board so requests. Each member of the Board of Directors shall perform their office in person; however, this does not prevent any member of the Board of Directors from authorising another member of the Board of Directors to vote on behalf of the authorising member of the Board of Directors at the meeting of the Board of Directors in their absence at an individual occasion.
12. The Board of Directors shall be quorate if a simple majority of its members are present. A resolution of the Board of Directors shall be adopted if approved by a simple majority of members present. Each member of the Board of Directors shall have one vote. In the event of a tie vote, the chairperson's vote shall be decisive.
13. Each individual member of the Board of Directors, or all members of the Board of Directors, may attend a meeting of the Board of Directors and vote even if they are not present at the meeting in person, irrespective of whether or not the number of members present in person at the place of the meeting is sufficient for the Board of Directors to have a quorum. Those members of the Board of Directors who attend the Board of Directors meetings and are not present in person at the place of the meeting shall vote by telephone or any other communication system that allows all persons attending the meeting to hear each other (e.g. teleconferencing or video conferencing). Any person attending the meeting and voting in this manner shall be considered present at the meeting and shall be entitled to vote. Other details of the course of the meeting pursuant to this paragraph may be stipulated in the rules of procedure of the Board of Directors.
14. The Board of Directors may, at the proposal of its chairperson or, if the Board of Directors does not have a chairperson, at the proposal of another member of the Board of Directors, adopt resolutions outside of a meeting by way of a written vote and/or voting by e-mail, fax or any other suitable technical means. The members voting outside of a meeting shall be considered present. The Board of Directors is quorate for outside-of-meeting voting if a simple majority of the members of the Board of Directors participate in the voting. A resolution shall be adopted if approved by a simple majority of votes of the members voting outside of its meetings. In the event of a tie vote, the chairperson's vote shall be decisive. All organisational matters related to decision-making outside of the meeting of the Board of Directors shall be arranged for by the chairperson of the Board of Directors. Resolutions adopted outside of meetings of the Board of Directors must be incorporated into the minutes at the nearest meeting of the Board of Directors. Other details of the course of adopting resolutions outside a meeting pursuant to this paragraph may be stipulated in the rules of procedure of the Board of Directors.

15. Minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors and of their resolutions shall be executed and signed by the chairperson of the Board of Directors and the minutes clerk. The list of attendees shall form an annex to the minutes. A member of the Board of Directors or any other person may be the minutes clerk. The minutes shall describe the manner in which the individual items on the agenda of the meeting of the Board of Directors were discussed and the resolutions adopted on these items, including the numbers of votes by which each resolution was adopted. The minutes of the meeting of the Board of Directors must specify the names of the members of the Board of Directors who voted against separate resolutions of the Board of Directors or abstained from voting. The minutes shall also contain information on whether the Board of Directors was quorate during the entire meeting. Members of the Board of Directors not specified in the minutes as voting against shall be understood to have voted for the resolution, unless it is proved otherwise. The costs related with the meetings and other activities of the Board of Directors shall be borne by the Company.

Article 15 Obligations of Members of the Board of Directors

1. Members of the Board of Directors shall exercise their authority with due care and necessary loyalty, qualification and diligence. A person who acts with diligence and necessary qualification in making business decisions is someone who can reasonably anticipate in good faith that they act on an informed basis and in the justifiable interest of the Company. This shall not apply if any such decisions were not made with necessary loyalty. A member of the Board of Directors may ask the General Meeting for an instruction regarding business management. This shall not affect their duty to act with due care.
2. The rights and duties between the Company and a member of the Board of Directors shall be governed by applicable provisions of the Civil Code on mandate agreements mutatis mutandis, unless anything else arises from the agreement on performance of office (if executed) or from the law.

If, however, the Company finds out from any interim financial statements that its own sources have been reduced, it will not use the data from the ordinary or extraordinary financial statements, but will use the data recorded in the interim financial statements referred to above.
4. The registered share capital increase may not be higher than the difference between equity and the sum of the registered share capital and the other sources of the Company that are earmarked for a special purpose and where the Company may not change the purpose.

an increase of the registered share capital from the Company's own sources, at most by one half of the amount of the registered share capital existing at the time when the Board of Directors is so authorised by the General Meeting. The authorisation as per the preceding sentence shall substitute the resolution of the General Meeting on the registered share capital increase and shall specify

- a) the maximum number of shares to be issued for the purposes of the registered share capital increase and other information about the shares that are stipulated in Section 475 (b) of the Business Corporations Act; and
- b) which body of the Company will resolve on the valuation of an in-kind contribution based on an expert opinion, if the Board of Directors has been authorised to increase the registered share capital.

2. The authorisation to increase the registered share capital may be granted for no longer than five years from the day on which the General Meeting resolved on the granting of the authorisation. The authorisation may be granted repeatedly.
3. If the Board of Directors resolves to increase the registered share capital by subscription for new shares, the priority right of shareholders to subscribe, based on the proportion of the nominal value of their shares to the registered share capital, for part of the new shares that are being subscribed for with the aim of increasing the registered share capital, may not be excluded or restricted, if the issue price is to be paid in cash.
4. The resolution of the Board of Directors to increase the registered share capital shall be certified by a public deed and such resolution shall be registered in the Commercial Register.

V. Registered Share Capital Reduction

Article 29 Registered Share Capital Reduction

1. The General Meeting shall resolve on reduction of the Company's registered share capital. It shall do so in accordance with the conditions stipulated by these Articles of Association and the legal regulations and in the manner indicated by them.

3. The Company shall use its own shares that it has in its assets to make a compulsory reduction of its registered share capital. In all other cases of registered share capital reduction, the Company shall first use its own shares that it has in its assets. A different procedure for the registered share capital reduction may only be used if the above procedure pursuant to the previous sentence is insufficient for the registered share capital reduction to the extent determined by the General Meeting or if this procedure does not meet the purpose of the registered share capital reduction.
4. Should the Company not have own shares in its assets, or should the use of these shares be insufficient under paragraph 3 of this Article for the registered share capital reduction, or should this procedure not fulfil the purpose of the registered share capital reduction, the Company shall reduce the nominal value of the shares, or shall refrain from the issue of unpaid shares.
5. A registered share capital reduction by withdrawing shares from circulation on the basis of drawing lots or withdrawing shares from circulation on the basis of a contract is inadmissible.

2. The nominal value of shares or interim certificates shall be reduced by exchanging the shares or interim certificates for shares or interim certificates with a lower nominal value or by marking the lower nominal value on the existing shares or interim certificates with the signature of the member(s) of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall, in a manner set out by the Business Corporations Act and the Articles of Association for convening the General Meeting, invite the shareholders holding shares or interim certificates to submit them for procedure as described in the previous sentence within the time period determined by the General Meeting. A shareholder that is in default in submitting the shares or interim certificates within the specified period shall not be authorised to exercise any shareholder rights attached to the shares or interim certificates until their submission and the Board of Directors shall apply the procedure set out in Sections 537 to 541 of the Business Corporations Act.
3. The nominal value of book-entered shares shall be reduced by changing the information on their nominal value in the record of book-entered securities defined by law, based on the Company's instruction. The instruction shall be accompanied with a statement from the Commercial Register evidencing the registered share capital reduction.

Article 31
Registered Share Capital Reduction by Refraining from Issue of Shares

1. The General Meeting can resolve on a reduction of the registered share capital by refraining from issuing shares, to the extent of the sum of the nominal values of the unpaid shares, to the extent the subscribers are in default in paying the nominal value of the shares, unless the Company expels the defaulting shareholder from the Company.
2. If the Company has issued interim certificates for unpaid shares, the issue of unpaid shares shall be refrained from in such a manner that the Board of Directors shall invite the shareholder that is in default in paying the issue price or part of it to submit its interim certificate within a period determined by the General Meeting. The Company shall not issue the shares represented by the interim certificate and it shall return to the subscriber, without undue delay after the effectiveness of the registered share capital reduction, the part of the issue price paid by the subscriber, reduced by the Company's claims against the subscriber. From the effective date of the share capital reduction, the shareholder shall not exercise any shareholder rights associated with the interim certificate based on the interim certificate pursuant to the previous sentence. If a shareholder pursuant to this paragraph is in default in submitting the interim certificate(s) within the specified period, the Board of Directors shall apply the procedure set out in Sections 537 to 541 of the Business Corporations Act. If the Company has not issued interim certificates for the unpaid shares, any unpaid share shall cease to exist upon the effective date of the share capital reduction, and the Company shall return to the subscriber without undue delay after the effective date of the share capital reduction the issue price paid to the relevant date, after offsetting its receivables from the subscriber.
