- 1.1 Where this document uses capitalized expressions (e.g., “Affiliate”, “Buyer”), such expressions shall have the meanings given to them in Section 17, and/or at other points throughout this document.

2. Scope of these Terms

- 2.1 These Terms shall apply to all Orders placed by Buyer with Seller. Each time Buyer places an Order, Seller agrees to fully comply with these Terms.
- 2.2 In case of conflict or discrepancy between these Terms and a Negotiated Agreement, the Negotiated Agreement shall prevail.
- 2.3 These Terms shall supersede any previous version of these Terms, or similar terms, issued by Buyer and/or its Affiliates relating to the involved Order.
- 2.4 Any terms and/or conditions proffered by or on behalf of Seller, through any manner or means, including, but not limited to, those that may be contained in a proposal, quote, acknowledgement or acceptance of an Order, invoice, specification or any other document or media, shall not apply and shall have no force or effect, notwithstanding any language to the contrary that may exist in Seller’s proffered terms and conditions or elsewhere.

3. Acceptance of these Terms

- 3.1 Seller may accept these Terms by any means, including, without limitation: (i) by signing or otherwise confirming its acceptance of the involved Order (such as in writing or electronically (e.g., via e-mail or procurement process)); or (ii) by providing performance relative to the involved Order.

4. Payment and Invoicing

- 4.1 Provided that Seller satisfactorily delivers all the involved Goods and/or Services, Buyer shall pay Seller the price as set out in the involved Order. In addition to the agreed-upon price, Buyer shall also pay Seller VAT or equivalent, if applicable. Seller shall not be entitled to any compensation other than that which is expressly set out in the involved Order.
- 4.2 Each Party shall, at its own expense, comply with all of the obligations that the Agreement attributes to it. Seller shall deliver to Buyer (using the contact details and/or the process specified in the involved Order), no later than 30 (thirty) days after delivering the involved Goods and/or performing the involved Services, an invoice that accurately details the relevant Goods and/or Services and that complies with the requirements provided by Buyer relative to invoicing, which are available at: <https://www.pmi.com/our-business/suppliers/platforms-how-to-invoice-pmi>. If the involved Services are to be charged on a time and materials basis and are to be provided over a period that is greater than one month, Seller shall invoice Buyer in arrears promptly following the end of each involved month (including associated expenses, if permitted).
- 4.3 Buyer shall pay Seller’s invoice in the currency specified in the involved Order and within the period specified for payment in the involved Order or, if the Order does not specify this period, then within 120 (one hundred and twenty) days from the date that Buyer receives it (and provided that the invoice complies with the requirements that are set forth in this Section) by way of a bank transfer to an account that is held in the name of Seller. Buyer reserves the right to suspend payment of any invoice, in whole or in part, if (i) Seller fails to comply with its obligations under the Agreement, or (ii) if Buyer has reasonable grounds to dispute the invoice.

5. Seller Expenses

- 5.1 If the involved Order indicates that Buyer is to reimburse Seller for expenses with respect to certain Goods and/or Services that will be provided, at Buyer’s request, from locations other than Seller’s offices or in the immediate vicinity thereof, then, as indicated in the Order, Buyer shall reimburse Seller for those expenses that Seller incurs in providing such Goods and/or Services either:
- (a) By paying Seller a fixed sum per day for each individual who is involved in providing such Goods and/or Services, the value of which shall be determined in accordance with Buyer’s standard expense table for these purposes (which may be one of those that is set out in Buyer’s Supplier Expense Guidelines (available at <https://www.pmi.com/legal/legal-documents>). For the avoidance of doubt, the Supplier Expense Guidelines may be modified or replaced from time to time, and it is Seller’s responsibility to maintain full awareness of and compliance with the latest version(s) thereof); or
- (b) By paying Seller, at its actual cost (without any mark-up), for those reasonable expenses for travel, accommodation and meals that Seller incurs in providing such Goods and/or Services, provided, with respect to each such item of expense, that Seller: (i) incurs it in accordance with Buyer’s Supplier Expense Guidelines (available at <https://www.pmi.com/legal/legal-documents>), which may be modified or replaced from time to time, (ii) submits the receipt for it along with its claim for reimbursement; and (iii) incurs only following Buyer’s prior written approval (which it may give via e-mail). For the avoidance of doubt, it is Seller’s responsibility to maintain full awareness of and compliance with the latest version(s) thereof.

6. Provisions that Apply to the Purchase of Goods

- 6.1 Warranties. Seller warrants that (i) the Goods shall be free from any liens or encumbrances that could affect Seller’s right to transfer ownership of the Goods to Buyer; (ii) the Goods shall meet all of the specifications, standards, procedures, methods or systems that are referred to in the Agreement and/or that have been shared by Buyer with Seller; (iii) the Goods (including all materials used in the Goods) shall be free from any and all defects (including those relating to design, workmanship and/or materials, and those that are obvious and latent in nature); (iv) the Goods shall be subject to quality control by Seller based on industry quality control standards; (v) the Goods shall be suitable for their intended use and purpose; (vi) the Goods shall be manufactured, packaged and labelled in accordance with the Agreement and all applicable laws and standards of the countries of manufacture, delivery, distribution, and intended use, including laws on labor and employment, health and safety, manufacturing, transport, data protection, environment, competition and fair market practices; and (vii) the Goods do not and shall not infringe on any Intellectual Property Rights of any third party.

- 6.2 Warranty Duration. The warranties contained in Section 6.1 shall be valid and continue indefinitely.
- 6.3 Changes to the Specifications or Manufacturing. Buyer shall notify Seller in writing of any changes to the specifications that Buyer requires, and the changes shall come into effect immediately upon notice to Seller. Seller shall request Buyer's written consent prior to implementing any change to the manufacturing of the Goods that may have an impact on the quality of the Goods, consumer safety and/or any regulatory requirements applicable to the Goods.
- 6.4 Certificates and Samples. Upon Buyer's request, Seller shall (i) provide a certificate of analysis and/or a certificate of conformity with each batch of Goods delivered to Buyer, and (ii) provide the number of samples of Goods for inspection purposes in line with the agreed quality or compliance requirements. Samples shall be provided in addition to the quantity of Goods ordered.
- 6.5 Packaging and Delivery. Seller shall suitably package the Goods and deliver them (or engage a carriage company to do so) at the time and place that is specified in the involved Order. The Goods shall be delivered by Seller to Buyer in accordance with the Incoterms specified in the Order. If nothing is so specified, the applicable Incoterms shall be Carriage Paid To (CPT).
- 6.6 Title and Risk. Title and risk of loss or damage relating to each shipment of Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer (and from Buyer to Seller in case of a return of Goods) immediately after the vessel, aircraft, or other involved form of transportation onto which they are loaded first reaches international waters or airspace, or, if the shipment is transported by land, as soon as the shipment leaves the territory of the country of origin. Seller remains liable for loss of or damage to the Goods even after the risk of loss or damage has passed to Buyer if the loss or damage is due to an act or omission of Seller.
- 6.7 Customs. Seller shall comply with all applicable customs laws, including (i) filing complete and accurate customs documents to ensure that customs authorities can clear shipment of the Goods in the country of destination and (ii) timely and securely filing the signed freight paper, copies of any customs declarations and all other required customs documents. Upon Buyer's request, Seller shall promptly provide certified copies thereof to Buyer.
- 6.8 Inspection. Seller waives any right to require Buyer to promptly inspect the Goods. Buyer is entitled to notify Seller of any defects that it becomes aware of at any time during the period of warranty that is set out in Section 6.2.
- 6.9 Non-conforming Goods. In the event that either Party detects Goods that do not conform with the warranties set out in Section 6, such Party shall promptly inform the other Party in writing, and Seller shall (i) cooperate with Buyer, (ii) comply with Buyer's instructions regarding the non-conforming Goods, (iii) immediately take all necessary containment, corrective and/or preventive actions, and (iv) upon Buyer's request, promptly provide full traceability to Buyer regarding the non-conforming Goods between manufacturing and delivery to Buyer.
- 6.10 Consequences of Non-conforming Goods. If the Goods do not comply with the warranties contained in Section 6, and/or if Seller fails to deliver the Goods in accordance with the Agreement, Buyer may, in its sole discretion (and without limiting any of its other rights): (i) rescind the Order and request a full refund for the Goods; (ii) request a price reduction that is intended to reflect the decreased value of the Goods; (iii) require Seller to replace or repair the Goods so that they shall comply fully with the warranties that are contained in Section 6; (iv) order substitution Goods from any third party and recover from Seller any Losses incurred in obtaining such substitution Goods; or (v) recover from Seller any Losses in connection with the affected Goods. If the option chosen by Buyer results in Seller owing any amount to Buyer, Buyer may request Seller to issue a credit note instead of a reimbursement. Credit notes issued by Seller shall (a) include a reference to the Order number, (b) include a reference to the non-conformity report (if applicable), (c) describe the affected quantity of Goods, and (d) be submitted in accordance with Section 4.
- 6.11 Late Delivery. If there has been or will be a late delivery, Buyer may cancel the Order with no obligation or liability to Seller except as is provided in this Section 6.11, even if Buyer has already received the Goods. Alternatively, Buyer may elect to allow Seller additional time to make delivery, without waiving any rights to damages or other remedies that it has against Seller. Buyer reserves the right to claim damages and interest from Seller in the event of any late delivery and in the event of any failure on the part of Seller to perform its obligations under the Agreement that causes any loss or expense to Buyer.
- 6.12 Rejected Goods. If Buyer elects to rescind the involved Order, to require Seller to replace or repair the Goods, or to order substitution Goods from a third party, Buyer shall have no obligation to Seller other than to allow Seller to collect the rejected Goods at the time and place that Buyer specifies to Seller. Buyer shall be entitled to retain the Goods until Seller has fully reimbursed Buyer for the reasonable storage and insurance expenses that it has incurred and will incur (if any) from the time that the Goods were received until the time that Seller collects the rejected Goods.
- 6.13 Excess Quantity. Buyer is not obligated to accept or pay for any Goods that Seller delivers to it that are in excess of the quantity stated in the involved Order. Buyer may refuse any such Goods within 14 (fourteen) days after their delivery has taken place.
- 6.14 No Waiver. Should Buyer elect to receive, and/or pay for, the Goods, this shall not imply that (i) Buyer accepts the Goods or waives any of its rights; (ii) the Goods meet Buyer's specifications or requirements; or (iii) Seller has complied with its obligations under Section 6.

- 6.15 Inspection. Buyer shall have a continuing right to inspect Seller's production facilities. If at any time Buyer determines that the quality of the Goods during production does not meet the standards that have been established by the Agreement, or if Buyer reasonably determines that Seller will not be able to deliver the Goods on or before the specified and agreed-upon date, Buyer may rescind the Agreement, in whole or in part, while retaining all rights that it has against Seller.
- 6.16 Seller License. To the extent that the use, distribution, resale or advertising of the Goods involves the use of any Intellectual Property Rights that belong to or are licensed by Seller, its Auxiliary Persons and/or the manufacturer of the Goods, Seller grants to Buyer, at no cost, a worldwide, royalty-free, and irrevocable license for the use of such Intellectual Property Rights in connection with the Goods, for the time and extent that is required by Buyer to obtain the full benefit from the Goods.
- 6.17 Buyer License. Buyer grants Seller the right to use Buyer Materials for the sole and exclusive purpose of complying with Seller's obligations under the Agreement. Upon the termination or expiration of the Agreement, this right shall end immediately, and Seller shall promptly return all involved Buyer Materials to Buyer. For the avoidance of doubt, Seller is not granted, and shall not have any rights to use, any Intellectual Property Rights of Buyer or any of its Affiliates beyond those that exist as a part of Buyer Materials that are covered in this Section 6.17.

Seller shall provide Buyer with oral and written progress reports, as Buyer may require from time to time. Provided that this report is approved by Buyer, Seller can then submit an invoice for its Services, in accordance with the provisions of Section 4. To the extent that that is the case, Seller hereby grants to Buyer and its Affiliates, at no cost and for the full term of such Unassignable New IPR, an exclusive, sub-licensable, worldwide, irrevocable, assignable, royalty-free license to use, make, modify, offer for sale, import, export, sell, to add to the Contract Materials, or to combine such with other Materials, in each case to the extent that is necessary to allow Buyer and its Affiliates to be able to fully benefit from the Contract Materials, Work Product and Unassignable New IPR.
- (d) Limited License to Seller Background IPR. Seller hereby grants to Buyer and its Affiliates, for the full term of Intellectual Property Rights protection, a non-exclusive, sub-licensable, fully paid-up, worldwide, irrevocable, assignable, royalty-free license to Seller Background IPR that is in or related to the Contract Materials and/or the Work Product, which permits Buyer and its Affiliates to use, make, modify, offer for sale, import, export, sell, to add to the Contract Materials, or to combine the Contract Materials with other Materials to the extent necessary to allow Buyer and its Affiliates to be able to fully benefit from the Contract Materials and the Work Product.
- (e) Seller acknowledges that the sums that are payable by Buyer under the Agreement are good, valuable and complete consideration for the vesting of ownership in Buyer of the Contract Materials and the New IPR that is in them, the transfer of title in the physical items, and the granting of the license to Seller Materials.
- (f) Buyer grants Seller the right to use Buyer Materials for the sole and exclusive purpose of complying with Seller's obligations under the Agreement. Upon the termination or expiration of the Agreement, this right shall end, and Seller shall promptly return all involved Buyer Materials to Buyer. For the avoidance of doubt, Seller is not granted, and shall not have any rights to use, any New IPR of Buyer or of any of its Affiliates.

- (g) Seller warrants that the Work Product (excluding Buyer Materials) does not infringe on any Intellectual Property Rights of any third party. Seller shall defend and hold harmless Buyer and its Affiliates against any claims that the Work Product (excluding Buyer Materials) infringes any such rights, and it shall indemnify them (irrespective of whether Seller is in breach of a n y warranty) from any losses, damages, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), settlements, and judgments that are incurred by or that are expected to be incurred by Buyer or its Affiliates or anyone deriving their right to use the Work Product from Buyer or its Affiliates that arise out of, or in connection with, any claim that the Work Product infringes Intellectual Property Rights of any third party.
