

General Terms of Purchase

1. Definitions – see Section 14

- 1.1 Where this document uses capitalized expressions (e.g., “Affiliate”, “Buyer”), those expressions shall have the meanings given to them in Section 14, which is at the end of these Terms.

2. Scope of these Terms

- 2.1 These Terms shall apply (i) where Goods and/or Services are purchased through an Order which incorporates these Terms, or (ii) where no agreement that is intended to apply to such purchase of Goods and/or Services has been agreed upon between the Buyer and the Seller.
- 2.2 Any terms and conditions that are proffered by the Seller through any manner or means, including those that may be contained in a proposal, quote, acknowledgement or acceptance of an Order, invoice, specification or any other document or media, shall not apply and shall be of no effect, notwithstanding any language to the contrary that may exist in the Seller’s proffered terms and conditions or anywhere else.

3. Acceptance of these Terms

- 3.1 The Seller may accept these Terms by any means, including, without limitation: (a) by signing or otherwise confirming its acceptance of the involved Order (such as in writing or electronically (e.g., via e-mail or procurement process)); or (b) by starting to provide performance relative to the involved Order.

4. Invoicing and Payment

- 4.1 Provided that the Seller satisfactorily delivers all of the involved Goods and/or Services, the Buyer shall pay the Seller the price as set out in the involved Order. In addition to the agreed-upon price, the Buyer shall also pay the Seller VAT (or its equivalent), if and when that sort of tax is applicable. The Seller shall not be entitled to any compensation other than that which is expressly set out in the involved Order.
- 4.2 If the involved Order indicates that the Buyer is to reimburse the Seller for expenses with respect to certain Services that will be provided, at the Buyer’s request, from locations other than the Seller’s offices or in their immediate vicinity then, as indicated in the Order, the Buyer shall reimburse the Seller for those expenses that the Seller incurs in providing such Services either:
- (a) by paying the Seller a fixed sum per day for each individual who is involved in providing such Services, the value of which shall be determined in accordance with the Buyer’s standard expense table for these purposes (and which may be one of those that is set out in the Buyer’s Supplier Expense Guidelines, which are available at <https://www.pmi.com/legal/legal-documents> (and which may be modified or replaced from time to time)); or
 - (b) by paying the Seller at its actual cost (without any mark-up), for those reasonable expenses for travel, accommodation and meals that the Seller incurs in providing such Services, provided, with respect to each such item of expense, that the Seller:
 - (i) incurs it in accordance with the Buyer’s Supplier Expense Guidelines which are available at <https://www.pmi.com/legal/legal-documents> (and which may be modified or replaced from time to time);
 - (ii) submits the receipt for it along with its claim for reimbursement; and
 - (iii) incurs only following the Buyer’s prior written approval (which it may give via e-mail).

- 4.3 Each party shall, at its own expense, comply with all of the obligations that the Agreement attribute to it. The Seller shall deliver to the Buyer (using the contact details and/or the process specified in the involved Order), no later than 30 days after delivering the involved Goods and/or performing the involved Services, an invoice that accurately details the relevant Goods and/or Services and that complies with the requirements provided by the Buyer relative to invoicing. If the involved Services are to be charged on a time and materials basis, and are to be provided over a period of time that is greater than one month, the Seller shall invoice the Buyer in arrears promptly following the end of each involved month (including associated expenses, if permitted).
- 4.4 The Buyer shall pay the Seller's invoice within the period specified for payment in the involved Order or, if the Order does not specify this period, then within 120 days from the date that the Buyer receives it (and provided that the invoice complies with the requirements that are set forth in this Section 4) by way of a bank transfer to an account that is held in the name of the Seller. The Buyer reserves the right to suspend payment of any invoice, in whole or in part, if (i) the Seller fails to comply with its obligations under the Agreement, or (ii) if the Buyer has reasonable grounds to dispute the invoice.

5. Provisions that apply to the purchase of Goods

- 5.1 The Seller warrants that (a) the Goods will be free from any liens or encumbrances that could affect the Seller's right to transfer ownership of the Goods to the Buyer; (b) the Goods shall meet all of the specifications, standards, procedures, methods or systems that are referred to in the Agreement; (c) the Goods will be free from any and all defects (including those relating to design, workmanship and/or materials, and those that are obvious and latent in nature); (d) the Goods will be suitable for their intended use / purpose; and (e) the Goods will be manufactured, packaged and labelled in accordance with the Agreement and all applicable laws and standards of the countries of manufacture, distribution, and intended use, including laws on labor and employment, health and safety, manufacturing, transport, data protection, environment, competition and fair market practices.
- 5.2 The Seller warrants that the Goods do not and will not infringe on any Intellectual Property Rights of any third party. The Seller shall defend and hold harmless the Buyer and its Affiliates against any claims that the Goods infringe any such rights, and it shall indemnify them (irrespective of whether the Seller is in breach of any warranty) from any losses, damages, costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), settlements, and judgments that are incurred by or that are expected to be incurred by the Buyer or its Affiliates or anyone deriving their right to use the Goods from the Buyer or its Affiliates that arise out of, or in connection with, any claim that the Goods infringe Intellectual Property Rights. The Buyer shall notify the Seller of any such claim(s) in a commercially reasonable period of time.
- 5.3 The warranties contained in Section 5.1 shall be valid for 24 months from the date that the Goods are delivered. The warranties contained in Section 5.2 shall continue indefinitely.
- 5.4 The Seller shall suitably package the Goods and deliver them (or engage a carriage company to do so) at the time and place that is specified in the involved Order. For any Goods that will cross international borders for delivery, the Goods shall be sent DDP (per INCOTERMS 2020). The Seller shall insure the Goods until delivery. Subject to Section 5.5, all risks shall pass from the Seller to the Buyer in accordance with the applicable INCOTERMS provisions, and ownership shall pass from the Seller to the Buyer upon the Goods leaving the country of origin.
- 5.5 In the event that there has been or will be a late delivery, the Buyer may cancel the Order with no obligation or liability to the Seller except as is provided in Section 5.9, even if the Buyer has already received the Goods. Alternatively, the Buyer may elect to allow the Seller additional time to make delivery, without waiving any rights to damages that it has against the Seller. The Buyer reserves the right to claim damages and interest from the Seller in the event of any late delivery and in the event of any failure on the part of the Seller to perform its obligations under the Agreement that causes any sort of loss or expense to the Buyer.

- 5.6 The Buyer is not obligated to accept or pay for any Goods that the Seller delivers to it that are in excess of the quantity stated in the involved Order. The Buyer may refuse any such Goods within 14 days after their delivery has taken place.
- 5.7 Should the Buyer elect to receive, and/or pay for, the Goods, this shall not imply that:
- (a) the Buyer accepts the Goods or waives any of its rights;
 - (b) the Goods meet the Buyer's specifications or requirements; or
 - (c) the Seller has complied with its obligations under Section 5.1.
- 5.8 The Seller waives any right to require the Buyer to promptly inspect the Goods and/or notify the Seller of any defects. The Buyer is entitled to notify the Seller of any defects that it becomes aware of at any time during the period of warranty that is set out in Section 5.3. If the Goods do not comply with the warranties contained in Section 5.1, the Buyer may, in its sole discretion (and without limiting any of its other rights): (i) rescind the Order and request a full refund for the Goods; (ii) request a price reduction that is intended to reflect the decreased value of the Goods; or (iii) require the Seller to replace or repair the Goods so that they will comply fully with the warranties that are contained in Section 5.1.
- 5.9 If the Buyer elects to rescind the involved Order, the Buyer shall have no obligation to the Seller other than to allow the Seller to collect the rejected Goods at the time and place that the Buyer specifies to the Seller. The Buyer shall be entitled to retain the Goods until the Seller has fully reimbursed the Buyer for the reasonable storage and insurance expenses that it has incurred / will incur (if there are any) from the time that the Goods were received until the time that the Seller collects the rejected Goods.
- 5.10 The Buyer shall have a continuing right to inspect the Seller's production facilities. If at any time the Buyer determines that the quality of the Goods during production does not meet the standards that have been established by the Agreement, or if the Buyer reasonably determines that the Seller will not be able to deliver the Goods on or before the specified and agreed-upon date, the Buyer may rescind the Agreement, in whole or in part, while retaining all rights that it has against the Seller.
- 5.11 To the extent that the use, distribution, resale or advertising of the Goods involves the use of any Intellectual Property Rights that belong to or are licensed by the Seller, its Auxiliary Persons and/or the manufacturer of the Goods, the Seller grants to the Buyer, at no cost, a worldwide, royalty-free, and irrevocable license for the use of such Intellectual Property Rights in connection with the Goods, for as far and as long as is required by the Buyer to benefit from the Goods.
- 5.12 The Buyer grants the Seller the right to use the Buyer Materials for the sole and exclusive purpose of complying with the Seller's obligations under the Agreement. Upon the termination or expiration of the Agreement, this right shall end immediately, and the Seller shall promptly return all involved Buyer Materials to the Buyer. For the avoidance of doubt, the Seller is not granted, and shall not have any rights to use, any Intellectual Property Rights of the Buyer or any of its Affiliates beyond those that exist as a part of the Buyer Materials that are covered in this Section 5.12.

The Seller shall provide the Buyer with oral and written progress reports, as the Buyer may require from time to time. In the event that the Seller is Provided that this report is accepted / approved by the Buyer, the Seller can then submit an invoice for its Services, in accordance with the provisions of Section 4. Either party may seek the enforcement and/or collection of any arbitration award in any court that has proper jurisdiction.
